U. C. T. SESSIONS NOW UNDER WAY

Traveling Men Here From Every Quarter of Carolinas For Fourth Annual Convention—Events

Representative traveling men from every nook and corner of North and South Carolina and parts of other States are in Wilmington in great numbers and are in possession of the city and the adjacent pleasure resorts. The keys of the city were formally turned over to them yesterday morning by Mayor MacRae and by Herbert McClammy, Esq., city attorney, one of the ablest members of the local bar and a prominent candidate for Congress in the Sixth North Carolina District, and since that good hour the visitors have held undisputed sway among the hospitable and generous people.

Beginning with the preliminary exercises in the Academy of Music yesterday morning the Travelers, members of their families and friends had a strenuous but most pleasant day. Three business sessions at 10:30 A. M., 3 and 8:30 P. M., served to keep the members of the order busy while others found time for pleasure and recreation, the opportunities for which were so abundantly provided by the local committee in charge. The Academy of Music, where the opening session was held, was crowded with visiting and local traveling men, members of their families and friends. The purpose of this public meeting was to formally welcome the visitors to the city and this was done by Mr. McClammy in his characteristically happy manner.

The traveling men assembled at the hall of Cape Fear Council, No. 374, corner Front and Chesnut streets, and proceeded to the Academy of Music in a body, taking seats reserved for them. Promptly at 9:30 o'clock the gathering was called to order by Mr. W. O. Page, of this city, and following an overture by Kneisel's Orchestra, a fervent prayer was offered by Rev. Wm. E. Cox, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church. Mr. Page then presented Mayor Walter G. MacRae, who in his usual happy manner bid the visitors welcome to the city of Wilmington. He paid a high tribute to the traveling men, and closed his short, but felicitous address amidst much applause. City Attorney Herbert McClammy was next presented by Mr. Page and he supplemented the welcome extended by the Mayor. He spoke as follows:

"Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:—In extending to you a hearty welcome on behalf of the citizens of this community, and Cape Fear Council of the United Commercial Travelers of America, I realize that I am standing before the great body of men that have in the past decade made it possible for the two Carolinas to become the great commercial center of the South. You have become learned and skilled in your profession, and have by your own intellectuality made your firms rich in this world's goods, at the same time taught your houses a higher ambition and loftier ideal in the world of trade. I have often been asked the question: 'What class of men know more about real philosophy, law, politics, government, necessities' demands, humanity in all its phases, commerce, rates, trades, conveniences, hardship, and whose hand is extended farther to help the fallen?' And my mind at once turned to the commercial traveler. And I could well say right here, the commercial traveler of the Carolinas.

"By this great organization untold millions have been brought to the coffers of the various enterprises that you represent, and to you is due the establishment of an international trade that has astounded the world.

"Then, too, you have become public benefactors. Public utilities have been required to sit up and take notice, that not only private rights should not be trampled upon, but public rights in all respects should be observed. Railroads have changed rates and schedules, and have been made to conform to the public good, better equipment of transportation had, hotels even have given better fares, upon a registered protest, sometimes called the 'drummer's' kick, with telling effect.

"Laws are now upon the statute books of every State in the Union, and upon the statute books of the Federal government that never would have been but for the commercial travelers' knowledge of the necessity of the same. In the main the policies of America that stand for better trade, better government, and greater progress is guided by the hand that affects the commerce of the nation.

"It matters not how small or how large your town, city, factory or firm may be, you each can assign a reason why the enterprise you represent is destined to assume the magnitude of the Standard Oil Company; why your city or town is likely to become the metropolis of the world.

"It is a well established fact that you are the only class of men who leave town and give every man in it a good character, thereby laying the foundation for the brotherly love that characterizes your great organization.

"I extend to you each and all a royal welcome, and in behalf of this Council, I throw wide the gates of this beautiful land and bid you possess it as your own."

Mr. McClammy received hearty applause. To Mr. C. H. Jones, of Columbia, S. C., a former resident of Wilmington, where his parents now reside, was assigned the pleasant duty of responding to the address of welcome. He is a most pleasing speaker and was heard with peculiar interest upon this occasion. Mr. Jones is supervisor of agents for South Carolina of the Fidelity Mutual Life Insurance Company, with headquarters in Columbia, and has been most pleasantly greeted by his many friends in this city.

The Response.

In responding to the address of welcome Mr. Jones spoke in substance as follows:

"It gives me great pleasure to rise in reply to the eloquent welcome which has been extended our Grand Council and the visiting members by the grand old city of Wilmington, through her mayor and city attorney.

"It gives me pleasure for many reasons, not least among which is, that notwithstanding I now hail from beyond her borders, I am a native of the Old North State, a Tar Heel, and proud of the fact.

"It gives me pleasure because I recognize the honor conferred on me when permitted to act as spokesman for this gathering of 'talking men', extending our thanks to such a delightfully hospitable host.

"It givs me pleasure because I have, on two similar occasions, enjoyed the hospitality of two other North Carolina cities, Charlotte in 1907, and Asheville in 1908, and knowing as I do the warm welcome, good fellowship and bountiful hospitality of those cities, I know when we come to Wilmington, the first, yes, the Queen City of the Old North State, that we come to the fountain head of North Carolina hospitality, than which there is no better, and that our sojourn within her borders will be one of unalloyed joy and happiness.

"It is peculiarly appropriate that Wilmington should entertain the traveling men, and that they should delight in being entertained here, because Wilmington has long been a wholesale centre, and no city can enjoy the fruits of a large wholesale business without the co-operation of the commercial traveler. For many years did the pianeer 'drummer' of old go forth telling of the virtues of Wilmington, and placing her wares in the towns of this and neighboring States, and as time has placed her stamp of approval and smiled her blessing on Wilmington, no man has arisen who could successfullly contradict the good things that were said or take from her trade.

"The traveling man has continued to boost Wilmington until today she rears her proud head high among the wholesale centres of the Southeast, with an annual commerce of seventy-five million, an export trade of thirty-two million, and bank resources of fourteen million.

"If we look back a hundred years, and in our mind's eye view the village of Wilmington nestled on the banks of the Cape Fear, and then turn our vision on the Wilmington of today, with her paved streets, handsome homes, business houses, railroads, steamships and her wonderful lighting system which defies the darkness and turns night into day, we are filled with wonder, and I claim, that the traveling man has done his part in building up this magnificent city with her wonderful commerce interests.

"Therefore, I say to you, Mr. McClammy, that Wilmington should love the traveling man, that the traveling man should love Wilmington, and I believe it is so and I know we are glad to be here.

"When I take this programme and look at the list of attractions offered by Wilmington, Wrightsville and the other points of interest, I wonder how we ever came expecting to leave at the end of two days, and I fear you will have some of us with you longer. When I read farther and note the many historical events which have taken place in and around Wilmington, and realize that these events have been written in letters of fire into the history of America and the world because of the manhood, bravery and patriotism of the noble sons of Wilmington and her vicinity, I readily understand how Wilmington can claim and hold first place in the hearts of the people of this great State.

"It is a privilege to visit the places where noble deeds have been wrought, and the birth place of the brave men who wrought them. We bow our heads in reverence, our hearts quicken with pride that we are fellow countrymen of theirs, our determination to live more worthy of such a heritage is made stronger, and we go away stronger men because of the inspiration we have received.

"In the early days of our country when those sturdy pioneers, seeking religious and political freedom, came and settled on this shore, they founded a city wherein man shall dwell in peace and worship God according to the dictates of his conscience, a city wherein manhood and womanhood could develop in the way God had ordained from the beginning, and posterity has more than fulfilled the hopes and plans of those noble patriarchs of old, until today we behold the model city of Wilmington, wherein dwell the noblest of men, purest and most beautiful of women and where the spirit of toleration, fellowship and brotherly love abounds; a city that is progressive and up-to-date,

ASSEMBLY CALLED IN EXTRA SESSION

Legislature to Assemble June 14th to Consider Bond Emergency.

ACTION OF GOV. KITCHIN

Governor Requests Bankers to Meet Him in Raleigh on June 8th—Call for Extra Session May be Revoked.

Raeigh, N. C., June 3.—Governor Kitchin this evening issued a proclamation calling the North Carolina General Assembly to meet in extraordinary session here June 14th to take action as to the impending $3,430,000 refunding bond issue, which is to take care of the bonds falling due July 1st. The necessity for the special session is the inability of the Council of State to market the 4 per cent. 40-year refunding bonds at this time in sufficient quantities, under the restrictions of the legislative act authorizing them, to meet July bond obligations. The proclamation of the Governor follows:

"To the Honorable, the General Assembly of North Carolina:

"By and with advice of the Council of State, an extraordinary occasion having arisen, I, W. W. Kitchin, Governor of the State of North Carolina, in exercise of the power conferred on me by the Constitution of the State, do issue this, my proclamation, convening the General Assembly in extra session on Tuesday, the 14th day of June, 1910, at 11 o'clock A. M., and do hereby notify and request Senators and Members of the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of North Carolina to meet in their respective halls in the Capitol in the city of Raleigh at said time, for purpose of considering the emergency resulting from the inability of the State Treasurer to sell, in accordance with chapter 399, of the public laws of 1909, entitled, an act to authorize an issue of State bonds to pay off the State bonds, which fall due on the first day of July, 1910, sufficient bonds to pay present outstanding bonds of issue of 1880, which mature July 1, 1910, and of enacting legislation to enable the State Treasurer to secure sufficient funds to pay the said last mentioned bonds at their maturity.

"In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the State to be affixed. Done in the city of Raleigh, this third day of June, 1910.

"By the Governor,

"W. W. KITCHIN,

"ALEX J. FIELD, private Secretary."

The first attempt to sell the bonds May 18th, brought in bids for $1,768,000 and these bids were declined as the full issue was not subscribed. At the opening of the second bids, May 28th, the bids were for $1,219,000, ranging from par to $1.04. These were accepted, leaving $2,211,000 yet to be subscribed; the act authorizing the bonds requires that these be sold at not less than par.

The Governor has written personally to every bank in the State asking that representatives meet him in Raleigh June 8th, to see if the entire issue cannot be floated. Though not officially given out, it is understood that if this is done, the call for the extra session will be revoked.

Treasurer Lacy's Statement.

State Treasurer B. R. Lacy issues a statement with the sanction of the Council of State presenting the bond issue situation. He sets out that when the General Assembly was in session in 1909 financial conditions were such that any good bond running for a reasonable term of years and bearing 4 per cent. interest would have sold for par or better, and so certain was it that State bonds would find a ready market that some members of Legislative Finance Committee insisted on offering a three and one half per cent bond sale. Last October $500,000 State Hospital 4 per cent 40 year bonds sold eadily at 103.

Continuing, Treasurer Lacy reviews the difficulties of the recent sale of many municipal and other bonds, including those of Philadelphia, Baltimore, New York and others. Getting back to the troublesome North Carolina issue in hand the State Treasurer says:

"It is evident from the bids received that but for the exemption clause our sales would have been much smaller. With this exemption, however, unquestioned, it having been settled by recent decision of the Supreme Court, these bonds become most desirable for our banks and corporations and the remaining bonds of this ought to be readily disposed of at or above par.

"The fact that North Carolina has received bids at and above par for $1,200,000 and over of her 4 per cent. bonds speaks well for the credit of the State, especially when the John J. Carlisle committee has engaged in a slanderous and malicious campaign to damage our credit and prevent the sale. While the Legislature has been called in extra session for June 14th, the State Treasurer will again open the bids for the bonds, June 10th, and as special efforts are being put forth to secure sales of the bonds, it is possible that the remainder of the issue may be disposed of on June 10th, and if so the Governor will, of course, recall his proclamation for the extra session. But for manifest reasons, owing

TAFT WILL HEAR RAILROADS' PLEA

Presidents of Western Lines Will Meet Him in Washington Monday.

FIGHTING INJUNCTION SUIT

Conference Requested by Several of the Big Trunk Lines—Protest Against Action of the Government—Rates.

Detroit, Mich, June 3.—The President tonight confirmed the report that on Monday next at Washington he will give a hearing to a large delegation of railroad presidents, who feel aggrieved over the injunction suit recently brought by Attorney General Wickersham to prevent an increase in freight rates by the Western Traffic Association.

The details of the conference have been left to the railroad men and government officials at Washington.

The conference was requested by several of the big Western trunk lines who desire to lay their case before the President and to learn more definitely the plans of the government.

Appeals From All Sides.

Chicago, June 3.—Simultaneously appeals to the people were made today by the Western railroads, and by the Illinois Manufacturers' Association.

The railroads submitted their brief to the "man in the street and the farmer", hinting hard times if the railroads are not permitted to increase their freight rates.

The manufacturers tell the people not to be deceived as there is no danger of panic and laud President Taft for his action in obtaining injunction halting the proposed increase in the rates.

On behalf of the railroads, Slason Thompson, head of the Railroad Publicity Bureau, put forward "four reasons why railroad rates must be raised."

According to Mr. Thompson, the railroads in the last two years are $220,000,000 behind on maintenance; they paid $130,000,000 more annually for labor; they paid $100,000,000 more annually for interest; they lost $25,000,000 annually on passenger traffic, with the total result that they are $730,000,000 to the bad in two years.

"Railway rates must be advanced because many companies otherwise will face bankruptcy," said Mr. Thompson. "This is a result which the injunction granted at Hannibal on a side issue irrespective of the justice of the advance, on ex-parte representation without notice and without proper weighing of the consequences, may expedite, but is powerless to enjoin."

Why this is so may be briefly stated in terms that the man in the street, in the workshop and on the farm can understand and appreciate.

"In the end it is this man in the street who must bear the brunt of any disaster that befalls the American railway system."

Mr. Thompson quotes railroad statistics as far as 1897 to prove the contention that the railroads face ruin unless rates are advanced. Mr. Thompson declares that the shippers have been grossly deceived and he charges the Associated Shippers' Bureau, of Cincinnati, with practicing the deception.

"For more than 20 years," declares Mr. Thompson, "the charge has never been made seriously that the average freight rates on American railways were unreasonable per se. On the contrary, it is the testimony of all investigators that they are the lowest in the world. If they have been reasonable for 20 years, and the service is more costly now than ever it is self evident that any slight advance now cannot make them unreasonable."

The resolutions adopted by the Illinois Manufacturers' Association charges the officers of certain railways with being in a concerted movement to make the people believe that the shippers and consumers are making unfair demands and that another financial

AN UNVEILING AT CHARLOTTE

Tablet Will Mark Confederate Navy Yard—Interesting Bit of North Carolina History—Incidents During the Civil War.

Charlotte, N. C., June 3.—On a freight warehouse of the Seaboard Air Line Railway in this city, the Stonewall Jackson Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy today unveiled a tablet so that future generations may know the spot, 100 miles from navigable waters, where once was located the Navy Yard of the Confederate States.

After the battle of the Monitor and the Merrimac in Hampton Roads, the Confederacy recognized the necessity of removing its navy yard from Norfolk, Va. Charlotte, N. C., was selected as the site, and there, far removed from the possibility of attack by water, guns were cast for the navy and carriages and other implements of war constructed for the land forces as well as the naval service. No ships were constructed or repaired there. The tablet bears the inscription:

"Confederate States Navy Yard,
Charlotte, North Carolina,
1862—1865."

The tablet was designed by J. Frank Wilkes. It is a work of art of shield shape design, mounted on anchors and entwined with a sea cable with an appropriate inscription.

Wilkes is the son of the late Captain John Wilkes, who was in the service of the United States Navy from 1841 to 1854.

When Captain Murdaugh and Captain Parker, of the Confederacy, who were charged with the mission of finding a new site for a navy yard, came as far inland as Charlotte they met their old comrade, Captain Wilkes. On making known their quest, Captain Wilkes pointed out property that he owned fronting 600 feet along the railroad and 100 feet on the main street. This they thought exactly suited to their purpose, far enough inland to be safe from attack by sea, and lying on the only railroad which connected Richmond with the Southern States of the Confederacy. So the Confederate government bought the property on the promise to pay. Nothing was paid and after the war Wilkes bought the property back.

A large quantity of material and machinery was moved from Norfolk to Charlotte, and coke ovens, foundry and machine shops erected. All sorts of guns, gun carriages and woodwork were made here. The coal used was obtained from Egypt, N. C., in Cumberland county—the only coal mine in the State, and the coke was made here.

When Brom's battery, a famous local detachment, was projected, the churches of Charlotte gave their bells to the cause and these were cast into two cannon for it. Four other guns were captured on the coast and these were brought here and fitted with carriages and equipment.

Captain H. Ashton Ramsey, who is now living in Baltimore, was commandant of the navy yard.

When Richmond fell in April, 1865, Mrs. Jefferson Davis and children were living in Charlotte, and President Davis and his cabinet removed here that month. For a few days this was the capital of the Confederacy and the last deliberations of the government were held and its final acts signed and sealed in what is now the Charlotte Observer building. After the news of President Lincoln's assassination was received here the government broke up, the officers dispersed and the navy yard was abandond, to fall into the hands of Federal troops a few days later when they marched into the city.

THE MUNICIPAL ASSOCIATION

Commission System of City Government Endorsed by Meeting at Winston-Salem—Mayor MacRae Chosen an Officer.

Winston-Salem, N. C., June 3.—With the choice of Raleigh as the meeting place in 1911, the time to be set by the president, the Carolina Municipalities Association adjourned this afternoon. Though the attendance was not as large as was hoped, the convention will ultimately benefit every city in North Carolina for the discussions were helpful and eminently practical and movements were started that will, it is believed, result in radical changes.

The convention, following an explanation by Mayor F. N. Tate of the workings of the commission plan of municipal government at High Point, endorsed this plan and passed a resolution urging the Legislature to pass a general law authorizing cities to vote on this question. The resolution was presented by Walter Clark, Jr., city attorney of Raleigh.

The Association also made arangements to protest to the Corporation Commission concerning unjust freight discrimination against North Carolina cities. Likewise it authorized the Legislative and Judiciary committees of urge the Legislature to provide a more equitable distribution of public funds between cities and counties, the members believing the cities now have the big end of the taxes and the small end of the benefits.

Among the most interesting features was Secretary Thomas D. Meares' explanation of Wilmington's accounting system. Fine addresses were made by Mayor T. W. Hawkins, of Charlotte, and Dr. L. L. Lumsden, Government expert on the prevention of typhoid fever.

The officers elected were: President, F. N. Tate, High Point; first vice president, Capt. J. D. McNeill, Fayetteville; second vice president, T. W. Hawkins, of Charlotte; third vice president, O. B. Eaton, of Winston; fourth vice president, J. S. Wynne, of Raleigh; fifth vice president, W. D. Laroque, Jr., of Kinston; sixth vice president, Walter G. MacRae, of Wilmington; secretary and treasurer, Thos. D. Meares, of Wilmington.

ALFRED MacRAE A SUICIDE.

Found Dying in His Room at State University Yesterday.

Chapel Hill, N. C., June 3.—Alfred MacRae, a student at the State University, committed suicide here this afternoon by taking poison. He was found in his room in a state of convulsions just before his death. Efforts of physicians to save him were futile. He was prominently connected in the State, being a son of the late S. H. MacRae, and a grand-son of the late Judge James C. MacRae.

The remains will be sent to Bedford City, Va., where his mother resides.

RAILROAD MEASURE FINALLY PASSED

Radical Changes Caused Almost Unamious Vote in The Senate.

A NEW COURT OF COMMERCE

Progressive Republicans Claim a Signal Victory—Main Features of the Bill Brought Out—Water Routes.

Washington, June 3.—The Senate passed the administration railroad bill at 9:55 o'clock tonight. It had been under consideration for more than 12 weeks and practically no other business, except appropriation bills, were considered in that long period.

Only 12 votes, all of those by Democrats, were recorded against the bill. The practical unanimity with which the measure was passed was due to the radical changes made in the measure from the form in which it was drafted by Attorney General Wickersham, following numerous conferences at the White House on the subject of amending Interstate Commerce laws. All of the "insurgens" who opposed many features of the original bill, voted for it tonight.

Through the elimination of pooling and merger sections and by reason of the adoption of many amendments in the interest of shippers the progressive Republicans claimed to have won a signal victory, and most of the Democrats expressed themselves as favorable to the large portion of the measure.

Had it not been for the retention of the sections to create a court of commerce it is likely that the vote for the bill would have been unanimous.

Debate ceased at 9:50 o'clock, when Senator Elkins, chairman of the Interstate Commerce Committee, moved to take up the bill which was passed by the House and after striking out the body of that measure to substitute the matter agreed upon by the Senate.

In that form the bill was voted upon with the result that it was passed by a vote of 50 to 12.

No Republican voted against the bill and six Democrats voted for it. They were Messrs. Chamberlain, Clay, Gore, Paynter, Simmons and Stone. The Democrats recorded against it were Messrs. Bacon, Fletcher, Frazier, Hughes, Money, Newlands, Percy, Pursell, Rayner, Shively, Smith, of Maryland; and Smith of South Carolina.

Just before the voting began Senator LaFollette, one of the insurgent Republican leaders, served notice upon the Senate that unless the Senate conferees made a determined fight for retention of amendments procured by progressives and Democrats, it could not hope to approve the conference report.

Speeches in explanation of their votes were made by Senators Bacon, LaFollette, Doliver, Paynter, Clay, Simmons and Gore, and brief remarks were made by others.

Main Features of Bill.

The "high spots" in the railroad bill as it passed the Senate may be described as follows:

The bill provides for the creation of a new "court of commerce" for the consideration exclusively of appeals from orders of the Interstate Commerce Commission. The court is to consist of five judges, to sit in Washington; their powers are to be co-ordinate with the judges of the Federal Circuit Court, they are to receive the same pay and emoluments and are to be appointed in the first instance by the President for terms respectively of one, two, three, four, and five years. Each as he retires to take up the work of a circuit judge, is to be succeeded by a designation from the Circuit bench. These and other vacancies to be filled by appointment by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court.

While the offices of the court are to be in Washington and regular sessions are to be held here, provision is made for sittings anywhere in the United States. The government rather than the Interstate Commerce Commission is made the defendant in all cases coming before the court; but the commission is permitted to intervene, as are other interested parties. The defense is placed under the direction of the Attorney General, but the commission and interested parties are permitted to have counsel and to carry on the suit in case of the failure of the Attorney General to do so. Appeal may be taken to the Supreme Court.

The long and short haul provision of the present interstate commerce law would be amended so as to permit a greater charge for a short haul than for a long haul, only with the consent of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Special provision is made against the fixing of a lower rates for the purpose of destroying water competition.

Railroad companies are required to furnish written statements of rates from one place to another upon the written application of a shipper, under a penalty of $250 for misstatement or failure to comply with such appliper could bring suit for additional damages.

Either upon complaint or upon its own initiative, the commission is authorized to determine the reasonable-

With the arrival of reinforcements, the advance guard of still others that are yet to come, the Sailor lads in the game with Raleigh yesterday afternoon snatched victory from the burning in the ninth inning. Hits were numerous and the score is anything but indicative of a high-class of the sport, but the game was exciting and then—oh, well—as Wilmington won, it couldn't have been improved upon.

A single, a double, a sacrifice and then another single netted the visitors a couple of runs in the first inning and though Cooper started the first for Wilmington with a neat bingle over short and was sacrificed by Dubbs, the next two were out in order and there was no scoring. There was nothing doing in the second for either team but in the third, after Richardson had flied to second and Hobbs after bingling had been forced at second, Keating hit to left for two bases, advancing Phoenix to third, McCormick singling to centre and clearing the bases.

With the score four against them, the Sailors piled up three in their half when Hudson lined to centre, Gehring drew a constitutional, and Cooper skied to third. Dubbs flew to short, but Tydeman followed with a Texas Leaguer and Doak hit a screamer to left fence, scoring Hudson, advancing Gehring to third. Kluttz then singled over short, scoring Gehring and Tydeman. Two more were added in the fourth when after Hudson flew to centre, Gehring walked, Cooper hit to left for two bases, Gehring scoring on Dubbs' sacrifice, advancing Cooper to third and scoring later on wild pitch. Singles by Phoenix, McCormick and Lathrop with an error netted Raleigh three in the eighth, but a Garrisonian finish was put on by Wilmington in the ninth when Tydeman led off with a double to left for two bases, stole third, scoring on Kluttz's fly to right after Doak had bunted safely and stole second, Burke bunting safely and finally scoring Doak.

The traveling gentlemen must have been the Billiken.

Klutz, the rah-rah boy, showed up well for a first appearance.

Lathrop's wind-up ante delivery was real pretzelish, so to speak.

Dubbs pulled off a couple of bobbles in the early sessions, but settled down afterwards.

Where's Wilson? One of these days that Wilson dopester is going to wake up and find himself asleep.

Not only did the Kilties smear it on Wilson once, but followed that up by rubbing it in. And Luyster hasn't gotten after them yet.

The band ground out "Won't you come home, Bill Bailey?" when Tydeman coasted for the threshold towards the shank of the contest.

Everytime "Ingersoll" (as the Bugs dubbed him) Lathrop assumed his Dutch cracker shape before serving the ball, the stands went wild.

Tydeman, Doak, Cooper and Burke did the main swatting for the locals, while Prim, Keating and McCormac performed similarly for Raleigh.

And Ty is setting the pace for the team, just as we predicted. A single, double and triple out of four times up is traveling some. Ty is the most consistent ballist, by far, on the crew.

Brooks, the twirler from Lynchburg, arrived last night, and he, together with Pitcher "Pomp" Green, a domestic, will be in uniform this afternoon. Slabman Ebbinger has been given his conge. Thompson, a heaver from Virginia, is expected to pull in today.

PITCHERS' BATTLE AT WILSON

Eleven Inning Contest in Which Highlanders Come Off With Honors. Official Umpires Absent. Other Notes.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Wilson, N. C., June 3.——In a pitcher's battle of the gilt-edge variety, Fayetteville took the game from the Champions this afternoon by the score of 2 to 1 in an 11-inning contest. Two official umpires were here yesterday, Strause and Upchurch, but when the game was called today neither showed up. By wire President Whitaker appointed Mr. R. G. Briggs, an old veteran ball player, who possibly gave as much satisfaction in close decisions as the official variety. The main features were Hearne's and Kull's fade-away balls and Schuman's spectacular catch in an ungloved hand. Only one clean hit was made off Hearne, three of Fayetteville's four hits being infield scratches.

TUGS BE HERE MONDAY.

Will Tow Disabled Steamer to New York for Repairs—Rickmers.

Two tugs owned by the Merritt-Chapman Wrecking Company, of New York, will arrive here next Monday to take in tow the steamer Ellen Rickmers, which they will carry to a shipyard in New York for repairs.

It was first arranged that the steamer Sophie Rickmers, a sister ship of the disabled vessel, would convoy her to a shipyard, but she is so badly damaged that it was deemed advisable to secure tugs.

The two tugs will probably leave with her next Tuesday with the steamer and in the meantime a board of survey will be held on the vessel. The underwriters' agent from New York, has been spending several days here in the interest of the steamer.

CRAVEN SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

First Session of the County Association—Attendance Large.

Newbern, N. C., June 3.—With J. Van Carter, of Raleigh, presiding, the first session of the Craven County Sunday School Association began its deliberations at the Presbyterian Church in this city, Thursday morning. The meeting was a most interesting one throughout, there being 57 delegates from the various Sunday schools in attendance. The various phases or organized Sunday School work were taken up and discussed. The elementary department, the home department, the organized adult department, the teacher training department, and the visiting department all came in for their share of discussion and many interesting speeches were made by those who had been appointed to discuss these several departments.

At the conclusion of the day's session, the Association pledged $75 to the support of the organized work, $60 of which will be sent to the State Association and the remainder to be used in Craven county. Much interest and enthusiasm was manifested and the Craven County Association bids fair to become one of the liveliest in the State. The time and place for the next meeting was left with the executive committee, which will announce the same as soon as they ascertain the needs of the field and the wishes of the several schools throughout the county.

The following officers and department superintendents, and members of the executive committee were elected: President, S. M. Brinson; vice president, C. L. Ives; secretary, G. L. Richardson, of Dover; treasurer, G. W. Boyd.

Department Superintendents—Teacher training, Rev. A. C. Schuler; Elementary, W. H. Trueman; Missionary, Daniel Lane; Temperance, C. T. Hancock; Visitation, Alex. Lee, Mrs. H. W. Dixon, Mrs. J. M. Hargrett.

Executive Committee—Daniel Lane, S. D. Parker, S. A. Gaskins, J. S. Robinson, Cicero Gaskins, Dr. Dameren, Rev. T. J. Ragland, H. B. Craven, Zeo Vance Parker.

J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co. Successful.

After a great deal of effort and correspondence J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co., the popular druggists, have succeeded in getting the Dr. Howard Co. to make a special half-price introductory offer on the regular fifty cent size of their celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia.

This medicine is a recent discovery for the cure of all diseases of the stomach and bowels. It not only gives quick relief, but it makes permanent cures.

Dr. Howard's specific has been so remarkably successful in curing constipation, dyspepsia and all liver troubles that J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co. are willing to return the price paid in every case where it does not give relief.

So great is the demand for this specific that J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co. has been able to secure only a limited supply, and every one who is troubled with dyspepsia, constipation or liver trouble should call upon them at once.

NEAR-BEER JOINTS CLOSED.

Rocky Mount Aldermen Decline to Grant Necessary License.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., June 3.—Every near-beer saloon and firm selling near-beer and like beverages are closed today for the first time in years a resident of Rocky Mount cannot get the real stuff, or the near article. All near-beer applications were filed before the city aldermen last night, and it was this body that denied the privilege of selling, and this morning the proprietors of the four establishments were met at the door by an officer who informed them that they could not open as the city had denied them license. There were four applications and the keepers were willing to pay the $500 tax as recently decided upon by the aldermen. According to the law regulating this matter the city fathers must pass on the application of every person who desires the license.

The trouble came about when the proprietors of the present establishments began selling a beverage that was "making drunk come" alright and the many offenders in Recorder's court testified that they got drunk on "near beer". It became so frequent that recently the Recorder ordered that the proprietors be taken by surprise and a sample of all of his stock taken and sent off for an analysis. The State law says that over three per cent makes near beer into the real article, and it was found that every man in the business was selling the near article that contained at least 3 1-2 and even up to five per cent. alcohol. This was a violation of the law and according to the ordinance relative to the issuance of license these persons should have been denied the privilege of selling. The entire matter was handled in an executive session of the Board of Aldermen, and the clerk and the two officers who gathered in the beverage were the only persons present except the board members.

CURES PIMPLES EASY.

Simple Remedy That Clears Skin Quickly of All Eruptions.

For several weeks past J. Hicks Bunting Co. have done the biggest business it ever had in any one article in selling Hokara, the skin food that has won so many friends in Wilmington.

It has been found to be an absolute cure not only for all minor skin troubles, such as pimples, blackheads, herpes, ache, scaly scalp, complexion blemishes, itching feet, piles, etc., but for the worst sores, ulcers, or even chronic eczema and salt rheum. There has yet to be found any form of wound on disease affecting the skin or mucous membrane that Hokara does not heal, and its action is so instantaneous that those who try it are simply delighted with it right from the start.

In spite of its unusual curative powers, the price is trifling. To convince every one of its merits, they will sell a liberal-sized jar for 25 cents. And remember that if you do not think it does what it claims, you get your money back. You certainly can afford to try it on this plan.

If the skin trouble is caused by impure blood or if the bowels are inactive, use Hokara Blood Tablets. They cool and cleanse the blood and regulate the bowels in a natural way.

ANOTHER OCEAN RACE.

Motor Boats Will Try for Cup-Course Namnee.

New York, June 3.—The success of the recent motor boat race between Philadelphia and Havana, Cuba, has prompted the motor enthusiasts in these waters to arrange a second ocean contest for this class of craft. The proposed race is for a cup offered by Morton B. Smith, fleet captain of the Larchmont Yacht Club. It is understood that the contest will start off the Seaside Yacht Club at Atlantic City, and finish off the Atlantic Yacht Club at Sea Gate. It is now intended the race on the morning of July 14th. Cruising power boats up to 40 feet over all are eligible.

yet holding unto itself standards of honesty and fair dealing which recommend it to all.

"Mr. McClammy, I wish to thank you from the bottom of my heart for the confidence you express when you tender us the key of this model city, and I promise you that it shall be safeguarded while in our keeping, that nothing will be done which will place a stain on the fair name of Wilmington. I hope our visit may leave a ray of sunshine with you; I promise that we shall go forth and preach the praise of Wilmington and I know we are going to have a rousing good time and be benefitted from contact with you and your people.

"It is not in my power to put in words the keen appreciation we feel for this beautiful welcome, expressed in your speeches and also in the faces of your people who greet us with a smile wher e'er we go; however, as my limitations as a public speaker are only too evident, I will simply say that we thank you, from the bottom of our hearts we thank you. In closing I will quote a toast which is familiar to all present, and if slightly changed from the original version, it is, I am sure, as the author would write it were she here today:

"Here's to the land of the long leaf pine,
The Summer land where the sun doth shine;
Where the weak grow strong and the strong grow great;
Here's to Wilmington, Queen City of the Old North State."

Immediately after adjournment of the public meeting members of U. C. T. assembled on the wide steps of the City Hall building, where they had their photograph taken in a group. This "stunt" over the delegates to the Grand Council meeting went to the hall of Cape Fear Council, where the business sessions were held. Those not delegates to the meeting amused themselves about the city in various and sundry ways and all seemed to have a good time.

First Business Session.

The Grand Council was called to order by Grand Senior Councilor Oscar Williams, of Greensboro, with nearly all the Grand officers in their places. The following committees were appointed by the Grand Councilor:

Credentials—C. O. Kuester, Charlotte; Will Barrington, Spartanburg, S. C.; Ban Allen, Anderson, S. C.

Mileage and Per Diem—Vernon Porter, Charlotte; E. A. Hughes, Raleigh; W. L. Mims, Greenville, S. C.

State of the Order—C. H. Jones, Columbia, S. C.; L. H. Burnett, Wilmington; H. S. Marley, Greensboro.

Necrology—W. C. Carrington, Spartanburg, S. C.; J. E. Bell, Statesville; Thomas Miller, Greenwood.

Resolutions—S. S. Booker, Charleston, S. C.; E. E. Trogdon, Charlotte; H. R. Barrow, Spartanburg, S. C.

Charter and Dispensation—L. M. Schiff, Charlotte; W. S. Bunting, Wilmington; E. E. Mendenhall, Greensboro.

The credentials committee reported in the afternoon that there were present 33 delegates to the Grand Council, every Council in the Carolinas being represented with the exception of Orangeburg, S. C.

During the sessions of the Council the delegates had cigars in abundance, being given by Geo. L. Storm Co., New York City; American Cigar Co., and Cliff Weil Co., Richmond, Va.

Among the telegrams received was one from Mr. E. M. Wells, State president of the South Carolina division of T. P. A., who expressed his best wishes for a most harmonious and profitable meeting. The telegram was received with much pleasure and was answered in behalf of the Council by Mr. E. Van Schaack, of Columbia, S. C.

The title of Past Grand Councilor was conferred upon Mr. J. G. Shannonhouse, of Charlotte, his three years' service as Grand Treasurer entitling him to this honor.

Reports of the Grand Councilor, Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer were received and showed the state of the order and finances to be in a most excellent condition; in fact, the best condition in the history of the organization.

Officers Elected.

The annual election of officers was entered into between 5 and 6 o'clock and resulted as follows:

Past Grand Councilor—Oscar Williams, Greensboro.

Grand Senior Councilor—A. G. Barnett, Asheville.

Grand Junior Councilor—E. Van Schaack, Columbia, S. C.

Grand Secretary—E. B. Littlefield, Charlotte.

Grand Treasurer—C. O. Kuester, Charlotte.

Grand Conductor—J. H. Sempken, Charleston, S. C.

Grand Sentinel—E. A. Hughes, Raleigh.

Grand Chaplain—W. C. Carrington, Spartanburg, S. C.

Members of the executive committee for two years—J. M. McConnelly, Statesville, N. C.; C. Ban Allen, Anderson, S. C.; for one year—C. C. Taylor, Greensboro, and J. E. Gentry, Spartanburg.

Delegates to the annual meeting of the Supreme Council, which meets in Columbus, Ohio, in July, were selected as follows: J. G. Shannonhouse and E. E. Trogdon, Charlotte; Oscar Williams, Greensboro; alternates, C. H. Jones, Columbia, S. C.; Louis Schiff, Charlotte; A. G. Barnett, Asheville.

The newly elected officers were installed yesterday afternoon, and at the session last night Grand Junior Councilor E. Van Schaack, of Columbia, presided in the absence of Mr. A. G. Barnett, of Asheville, the newly elected Grand Senior Councilor.

Greensboro Gets Next Meeting.

Three cities put in bids for the next annual meeting of the Council, Greensboro and Asheville, N. C., and Greenville, S. C. The Greensboro delegation came determined to secure the next convention and they landed it with a safe margin over the other two cities. Many were of the opinion that Greenville, S. C., would be selected with little or no opposition, but they did not know that the Greensboro delegation, which does not know defeat in any cause they espouse. There are a large number of traveling men here from Greensboro and they were a happy bunch last night, and have already begun plans for the entertainment of their guests the first Friday and Saturday in June.

Hotel Committee's Report.

Mr. J. E. Gentry, of Spartanburg, S. C., as chairman of the Hotel Committee, submitted his report as follows:

"We have had a number of complaints from the members of our Councils in North and South Carolina and your committee has dealt with the matters in as kind, though firm, manner as possible and with few exceptions have had our requests granted. We are glad to report that we have been successful in getting promises of better accommodations in a number of places in the Carolinas.

"The hotel committee was much pleased at the action taken in regard to our recommendations in report last year, that all hotels of two stories or more be required to place fire escapes, and we are under lasting obligations to Senator H. S. Carlile and Insurance Commissioner McMaster, for their tireless efforts in having this bill pass the South Carolina Legislature. When this law goes into effect, which will be in a few months, all hotels will be required to provide fire escapes.

"We want to thank the members of the United Commercial Travelers who have rendered us valuable service in giving us all necessary information."

Scores Southern Railway.

The following resolution was offered and adopted by the Council at the afternoon session, which by the way, lasted from 3 to 7:30 P. M.:

"Resolved, That the Grand Council of the Carolinas, in annual session at Wilmington, N. C., June 3rd and 4th, 1910, condemn the treatment by the Southern Railway of the members of Greensboro Council, No. 296, on account of attaching a car on their regular train that was unclean, old and in no way conducive to good riding; in view of the fact that a good first-class car would have been furnished and which was promised by the said railroad."

Resolutions of Thanks.

The committee on resolutions made the following report, which was unanimously adopted:

"To the Fourth Annual Session of the Grand Council of the Carolinas: Greetaing:

"Whereas, at this time the deepest feeling of gratitude and appreciation for the most kindly and courteous treatment accorded to this body at Wilmington, N. C., prevails, be it

"Resolved, That for the many courtesies and elegant programme arranged for our amusement and entertainment by Cape Fear Council, No. 374, our thanks are spontaneous and appreciation most profound, and we wish to thank particularly the committees who have provided so liberally for the entertainment not only of ourselves, but also our ladies. Be it also

"Resolved, That we fittingly thank Mayor Walter G. MacRae for the cordial welcome extended the members of the Grand Council and visitors in behalf of Wilmington.

"Resolved, further that for many privileges extended by Hanover Seaside Club, Carolina Yacht Club, Atlantic Yacht Club, Wilmington Light Infantry, that this Grand Council go on record as being thoroughly in sympathy with these organizations in their efforts to give Wilmington what it is justly entitled to, and that this body extend hearty and sincere thanks for the use of their club rooms which have been so kindly tendered; and we also extend thanks to the Cliff Weil Cigar Co., American Cigar Co., and Geo. L. Storm Co., for cigars kindly donated. It is further

"Resolved, That having been brought to a keen realizing sense of the many courtesies accorded this order by the press of Wilmington, we wish to thank local publications for the same. It is further

"Resolved, That the hotels of this city and Wrightsville Beach are to be commended for their many courtesies and accommodations. It is further

"Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be furnished the Morning Star and Evening Dispatch.

"In closing your committee cannot refrain from complimenting Cape Fear Council on the perfect arrangement which has been the means of facilitation, the handling of the large amount of business brought before the session of the Grand Council.

"It can truly be said that this session has been conducted in peace and harmony, and our stay in Wilmington has been one of continuous round of pleasure.

"S. S. BOOKER,
"E. E. TROGDEN,
"H. R. BARROW,
"Committee."

All of the business of the Grand Council was concluded at the afternoon session. This is the first time in the history of the Council that all the business was transacted in one day.

The Grand Council met again at 8:30 o'clock last night, Grand Junior Councilor E. Van Schaack, of Columbia, presiding. After the Council was formally opened and adjourned the hall was turned over to Cape Fear Council, No. 374, and several candidates were initiated.

Today Set Apart for Pleasure.

Today has been set apart by the local committees as the day for the entertainment of the visitors and there will be something doing from early in the morning until late tonight. The first thing on the programme today is the Grand Street Parade which promises to surpass any parade of the organization in former years. The parade will take place at 9:30 o'clock this morning. The following is the order in which the parade will be formed: Mounted Police, Metz's Charleston Band, Grand Council Officers in Automobiles, Charleston Council, Raleigh Council, Charlotte Drum Corps, Charlotte Council, Columbia Council, Fort Caswell Band, Wilmington Council. The route of the parade will be as follows: From Council Hall, corner Front and Chesnut, up Chesnut to Third, up Third to Red Cross, down Red Cross to Front, down Front to Nun, up Nun to Third, up Third to Market and on Market to the steamer Wilmington's wharf. Col. John VanB. Metts and Capt. E. A. Metts will be the chief marshals, and they will have as their aides, Messrs. Horace Pearsall, R. E. Tapp and A. G. Bowden. The chief marshals yesterday issued the following relative to the formation of the procession:

"Metz's Charleston Band will form on Third street between Chesnut and Grace about half way of the block facing north.

"Grand Council in autos will form immediately in their rear on Third street.

"Charleston Council will form on Chesnut street facing Third.

"Raleigh Council will form immediately in the rear of Charleston Council.

"Charlotte Drum Corps will form on Chesnut street half way of the block extending between Second and Third, facing Third.

"Charlotte Council will form imfediately in the rear of their Drum Corp.

"Columbia Council will form in the rear of Charlotte Council.

Fort Caswell Band will form with the form column on the west side of Second street, facing Third.

COULD NOT STAND ON FEET

Mark Center Lady Tells How She Suffered, and Could Not Stand, But at Last Got Relief From Cardui.

Mark Center, O.—"I have been greatly benefitted", writes Mrs. S. J. Kintner, of this place, "by taking Cardui. Before trying Cardui, I could not be on my feet half an hour at a time. Now I can work all day, and sleep well. The pain in my right side is all gone, and I am in better health than I have been for five years. I recommended Cardui to all my friends. I am also giving Cardui to my young daughter."

Letters from all over the country come in the daily mail, telling what happy results have been derived from the use of Cardui, the helping, healing tonic for women.

Its virtues are due to the specific, curative qualities of the herbs of which it is composed, and its thousands of lady users appreciate its harmlessness and non-mineral, non-intoxicating, beneficial curative qualities.

Half a century of success, in the treatment and cure of the special womanly troubles, for which it is peculiarly fitted, is a bond that guarantees the merit of Cardui, beyond all question.

Isn't it reasonable to suppose that it will benefit you?

Try it.

Ralph Waldo Emerson said:

"If a man can write a better book, preach a better sermon, build a better mouse trap than his neighbor, though he build his house in the woods, the world will make a beaten path to his door."

That accounts for the fact that since we have been handling the interested buyers of motor cars have made a beaten path to our door.

$3.50 Recipe Cures Weak Kidneys, Free

Relieves Urinary and Kidney Troubles, Backache, Straining, Swelling, Etc.

Stops Pain in the Bladder, Kidneys and Back.

Wouldnt it be nice within a week or so to begin to say goodbye forever to the scalding, dribbling, straining, or too frequent passage of urine; the forehead and the back-of-the-head aches; the growing muscle weakness; spots before the eyes; yellow skin; sluggish bowels; swollen eyelids or ankles; leg cramps; unnatural short breath; sleeplessness and the despondency?

I have a recipe for these troubles that you can depend on, and if you want to make a quick recovery, you ought to write and get a copy of it. Many a doctor would charge you $3.50 just for writing this prescription, but I have it and will be glad to send it to you entirely free. Just drop me a line like this: "Dr. A. E. Robinson, K-1351 Luck Building, Detroit, Mich., and I will send it by return mail in a plain envelope. As you will see when you get it, this recipe contains only pure, harmless remedies, but it has great healing and pain-conquering power.

It will quickly show its power once you use it, so I think you had better see what it is without delay. I will send you a copy free—you can use it and cure yourself at home.

THE MORNING STAR

Published by the WILMINGTON STAR COMPANY (Inc.) Wilmington, N. C.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., under act of Congress, March 2nd 1874.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT.

The MORNING STAR, the oldest daily newspaper in North Carolina, is published daily except Monday, at $6 per year, $3 for six months, $1.25 for three months, 50 cents for one month, served by carrier in the city or by mail.

THE SUNDAY STAR, by mail, one year, $1; six months, 50 cents; three months, 25 cents.

ADVERTISING RATES may be had on application and advertisers may feel assured that through the columns of this paper they may reach all Wilmington, Eastern Carolina and contiguous territory in South Carolina.

Obituary sketches, cards of thanks, communications espousing the cause of a private enterprise or a political candidate, and like matter, will be charged at the rate of 10 cents per line, or if paid cash in advance, a half rate will be allowed. Announcements of fairs, festivals, balls, hops, picnics, society meetings, political meetings, etc., will be charged under same conditions except so much thereof as may be of news value to readers of the paper.

Advertisements discontinued before expiration of contracts are charged transient rates for time actually published. Payment for transient advertisements must be cash in advance. Contract advertisers will not be allowed to exceed their space at same rates or advertise anything foreign to their regular business without extra charge. Advertisements to occupy special place will be charged for according to position desired.

TELEPHONES: Business Office No. 51; Editorial and Local rooms No. 61. Call either if the other doesn't answer.

COMMUNICATIONS, unless they contain important news, or discuss briefly and properly subjects of real interest, are not wanted; and if acceptable in every other way, they will be invariably rejected unless the real name of the author accompanies the same, not necessarily for publication but as a guarantee of good faith

Saturday, June 4th, 1910.

Booster newspapers are running editorials on "Know Your City." Everybody should get acquainted with their city but don't allow the pessimists to give you the introduction.

It is announced that President Taft has determined to allow his cabinet to select his private secretary. Thus the President indicates that he is willing to take chances on having additional imposition heaped upon him.

There is a probability that Missouri will send a blacksmith to the United States Senate. It's all right. He can help the Democrats play the anvil chorus when they celebrate the big majority which they are going to land in Congress by this Fall's election.

The Norfolk Virginian-Pilot and the Charlotte Observer are having a controversy over the ship subsidy, the Virginia paper knocking it and the Observer appearing for the defense. Now, therefore, these contemporaries are wading into deep water.

Several of our State Republican contemporaries are indulging in exaggerated exultation under the misapprehension that Governor Aycock's "mocking birds" have come home to roost. It's not mocking birds they hear. It is the swansong of the perturbed and petering Republican party.

After having had a visit from Charlotte's Drum Corps during the past few days, Wilmington can very readily understand why Charlotte is able to make so much noise over everything she does. The drum corps is typical of Charlotte for it is up-to-date and loud in every respect. 'Rah for the Queen City Drum Corps!

Solomon Sheppard, the convict who was shot by the penitentiary guards in his third attempt to escape, is the Durham negro who has a mania for confessing crimes that he did not commit. This Tar Heel Solomon would make a handy man for the Republican administration at Washington. He never hesitates to take the blame and the consequences.

When the cotton manufacturers held their recent meeting in Charlotte there appears to have been an increase in the consignments of booze in the Queen City. A preacher wrote to the Observer and pointedly inquired whether a consignment of 32 barrels of beer was for the home folks or for the cotton manufacturers who were the guests of Charlotte. Some people appear to think that newpaper men can be caught turning State's evidence.

It will be noted in the associated press dispatches that the North Carolina Senators are not only holding their seats but are earning their pay. Both Senators Simmons and Overman proved themselves strong enough to attach some of their identity to the Taft railroad bill now pending in the United States Senate. The amendments offered by the gentlemen from North Carolina were accepted and will become part of the act. This is significant in that it indicates that the Tar Heel Senators are cutting some ice at Washington.

Within twelve months the feat of crossing the English Channel with flying machines has gotten to be commonplace. The two Frenchmen, Louis Bleriot and Count DeLesseps, a few weeks ago crossed the channel from France to England but it remained for an Englishman, Hon. Captain Charles Steward Rolls, on Thursday to cross the channel twice without lighting. The Englishman performed the double feat with an American machine, a Wright bi-plane. The problem of navigating the air seems to be making progress.

ROOSEVELT PANIC TO BLAME.

A few days ago our esteemed but misguided Republican contemporary, the Greensboro News laid great stress on the fact that North Carolina is having difficulty in floating its big bond issue under the stiff terms provided by the General Assembly. The Republican paper, for a partisan purpose, wrongfully and illogically attributed it to "Democratic misgovernment," notwithstanding the fact that North Carolina has made wonderful progress under economical Democratic government which restored the credit of the State and redeemd its institutions, notably the penitentiary which came out of the hands of the fusion government with a tremendous deficit. The Democratic administrations again set up the penitentiary and ever since it has been self-sustaining and aiding the treasury instead of being a burden to the taxpayers.

However, the purpose of this article is to show how ridiculous is the attempt of the Greensboro News to saddle on Democratic rule the failure of financiers to rush in and purchase North Carolina 4 per cent bonds at and above par. The people of North Carolina are too intelligent to be misled by a little bit of overworked politics when they know the real reason why—the Roosevelt panic, the effect of which has been far-reaching and the end of which is not yet.

As a matter of fact, the recovery from the Republican panic of 1907 has been of slow growth, with ever and anon recurrences of distress in the money, bond and stock markets. If the Greensboro News wishes to reproduce the real reasons for the panic and today's sorry condition of the bond and stock markets, it can do so by getting them from the New York Financial Chronicle and the Wall Street Journal. A very distinguished Republican now in England is largely given the blame by those able financial papers, both of which support the Republican establishment and were at one time ardent Roosevelt supporters.

However, the Star is not so ungenerous as to repute to President Roosevelt the sole blame for the panic and its consequences, but we do intend to deliberately fix on the panic under a Natioinal Republican administration the responsibility for the present slow bond market. Here is one of the proofs: Only this week, the New York savings banks cut the interest on deposits from 4 to 3 1-2 per cent, at a time when money is said to be plentiful and in great demand. The reason given for the lower rate for depositors is because the bankers' securities during the past three years have so depreciated in value as to materially cut down the resources of the banks and reduce their surplus—which is to say that they have shrunk up on account of the depreciation of securities values during the Roosevelt and Taft Administrations.

Now that the real fact in the case is that the market for bonds, mortgages and stocks is unsettled, and the demand is weak unless securities can be had at a sacrifice. Buyers, therefore, are still looking for bargains made possible under the Republican panic. They are looking for securities at a sacrifice, hence there is no rush for North Carolina low interest bonds at par or more.

Let the Greensboro News take its medicine and help to give the people of North Carolina a really intelligent idea of the situation. When their eyes are opened, a mere attempt to mislead them for political effect will prove a boomerang. The Star will say also for the enlightenment of its Republican contemporary that at no time in the history of this country have there been so many and such large bond issues—by the Nation, the State, the counties, the cities, the railroads, the corporations, etc. The market has actually been flooded with securities of all kinds and descriptions and naturally the supply is greater than the demand. When that occurs, securities logically get cheaper, and there you are.

This will help the News to take part of the blame off the National Republican administration, as we are in this instance showing natural causes for low price securities. The conditions as at present existing, however, be it remembered, had their beginning under the Roosevelt administration, but as the News will learn it is a safe rule for an editor not to attribute too much to politics. Politics cut much less ice than some people believe.

The Greensboro News (Rep.) charges that Democrats are as hungry for office as Republicans. Cause admitted. Bring in another horse. The old one has a sore back and has about been ridden to death.

Col. Bryan ought to be careful how he knocks Harmon. It very frequently occurs that it adds to a man's popularity to get knocked under some circumstances.

Teddy either talks to hear himself talk or else he talks so that it will bring on more talk, especially about him. Teddy is a hot number.

Now cometh up the question, "What is a Republican?" He is the man who will carry the wrinkled brow of disappointment after next Fall's election.

THAT McNINCH NOMINATION.

The Hon. E. Yates Webb, Democratic member of the House of Representatives from the Ninth North Carolina Congressional District, has been spending a few days at his home in Shelby. He was called home from Washington on account of sickness in his family and will return in a few days to his post in Congress, which, he says, will not adjourn before July first or thereabouts. Of Mr. Webb's views of the situation in his District, the Shelby Star Says:

"Asked as to the situation in this district, Mr. Webb did not seem greatly alarmed over his prospects now that the Republicans had nominated Mr. McNinch, the latest recruit to their ranks. Mr. Webb will remain at his post in Washington until the session adjourns and will then make a vigorous and aggressive campaign (it being of course conceded that he will be renominated without opposition.) His splendid record of service will rally every Democrat of the district to his standard, and there is sure some hard sledding ahead of Mr. McNinch."

We have no intention of underestimating the ability or minimizing the possibilities of the election of Mr. McNinch, but we have never considered his nomination a menace to the re-election of Mr. Webb. Even if Mr. McNinch's abilities could at all compare with those of Mr. Webb, the Republican candidate's politics entitle him to a frost in the Ninth. However, the District would hardly turn down a man of Mr. Webb's ability and experience, and fail to recognize again the distinguished and valuable service which he has rendered to the people. He stands well in Washington, and has done honor to his State in the National Legislature.

Mr. Webb tells the Shelby paper that the Democrats at Washington are jubilant over the outlook in the Fall elections and they believe it is now almost a certainty that the next Congress will be overwhelmingly Democratic. Mr. Webb says the Republican party is rent and torn assunder with internal strife and bickerings, while the Democracy is in fine shape. Many leading Republicans have "seen the handwriting on the wall," and realize that defeat is inevitable. He says the battle will be fought on the tariff issue, and Republican failure to carry out platform promises will surely bring party disaster. With reference to the Democratic Presidential possibilities, Mr. Webb says:

"Governor Harmon, of Ohio, looms up as the Democratic figure to head the National ticket. That he will again be re-elected as Governor of Ohio is virtually conceded and his victory in the Buckeye State makes him the logical standard bearer of the National Democracy."

We have observed that the trend seems to be towards Harmon, and if he carries Ohio again for Governor he will be the logical man for the Democratic nomination. If he is defeated, Mayor (Judge) Gaynor, of New York, will probably be the man of the hour. Yet there may be others.

THE BRYAN CHATECHISM.

Col. Bryan had a perfect right to propound certain questions to Governor Harmon, of Ohio, and it is the privilege of every other man in the United States to butt in if he makes up his mind to do it. It is, however, Governor Harmon's prerogative to ignore all questions and throw all communications in the waste basket if he sees proper to do so. It is up to the Governor to keep mum and be a mummy or to emerge into the limelight with his opinion on political questions, just as the propriety of any course strikes him.

This is a free country and every citizen can do as he pleases about asking questions, for that is the way we find out things. It is every man's liberty to sidestep interrogatories or withdraw into his shell from inquisitive people if he sees proper to exercise those prerogatives of a free citizen. In fact, it is up to us to make ourselves officious and pernicious and it is up to the other fellow to give us the comet stare and keep his answers and opinions to himself.

However, it is always a good idea to answer civil questions in a civil manner, but it must be particularly remembered also that any of us can stand upon our legal right to refuse to answer any question that would incriminate us. When a man asks you a question a little calculated to get you into a hole, it is a wise man who can assume an attitude of frigid reserve or relapse into a mere negative posture.

Evidently Governor Harmon was not prepared for the Bryan catechism, for it must be admitted that a man ought to have his wits about him before he pretends to recite all that he knows or undertakes to agree to what the other fellow thinks he knows. No doubt Col. Bryan wanted Harmon to answer the questions in a manner that would coincide with the Nebraskan's paramount ideas and probably Governor Harmon is justified in being just a little careful about committing himself at this psycological moment. Nevertheless, a good politician could have answered the Nebraskan's questions in such an adroit manner that Col. Bryan might have been willing to tolerate a little tentativeness.

It might be remarked in this connection that silence can be construed in two ways—one that you are afraid to answer a reasonable question or it is your deliberate purpose to offer an affront by ignoring the questioner. Governor Harmon may consider it entirely proprietary and judicious to keep his mouth shut at this time, but the Bryan questions certainly gave him a fine opportunity to let the Democracy know how he stands.

No man in politics ought to be afraid to express his opinions flatly and plumply, it matters not whether he agrees with Bryan or not. Governor Harmon and every other man must show his hand sooner or later and the sooner the better. The Democratic party is not in any position to risk any unknown quantities. When any man desiring to lead the Democracy reserves his opinion all Democrats ought to reserve theirs concerning him. It all may come out in the washing after a while, and the only question is whether that time is now or some other time. This may not be Governor Harmon's time and it is up to him to take his time about it. He may be reserving his opinion so that it can be expressed in full in the campaign which is about to open up in Ohio. We have no doubt that he will let the people hear from him in his own way. Col. Bryan may have been a little premature with his corkscrew.

The Raleigh News and Observer makes inquiry: "What are McNinch's politics?" They are Teddyfied hallucinations.

Governor Harmon, of Ohio, has every reason to believe that Col. Bryan wears the "Knocks" hat.

As a warning to our good people against getting too deeply interested in matters that tend to division—we note that the Bank of McColl, S. C., has obtained an order of court to sell the graded school building in that town for debt. And the Times says that McColl is well able to pay off the indebtedness, and that it is just simply a case of "the house divided against itself" and urges its people to get together. Mr. Ballinger is revealed in the role of active assistant in the preparation of his own exoneration, and his shuffling endeavors to evade admitting the facts while under examination will not help his reputation.—Harper's Weekly.

According to the annual report of the president of the institution, over 300 North Carolina young ladies who sought admission to the State Normal and Industrial College at Greensboro had to be turned away last Fall for the lack of living and boarding accommodations. The college this year had the largest enrollment in its history, and there is but little doubt but that the number could be doubled next year if they could gain admittance. The State should enlarge the dormitories so that these young ladies would not have to be turned away.—Rich Square, (N. C.) Roanoke-Chowan Times.

What has become of the movement started in Robeson some time ago to put it up to the voters to decide whether or not county officers should be placed on a salary basis? The vaguest sort of idea exists as to the revenue the officers derive from their offices. The Robesonian believes that the best plan for all concerned would be to place these officers on salaries. It has been done in other counties and is growing in favor. Guilford county saved $10,000 by that plan last year, about $8,000 for schools and $2,000 for roads. Robeson county would doubtless save as much or more.—Lumberton Robesonian.

The Hon. Nelson W. Aldrich, frequently and properly alluded to as the boss of the United States, is to take up farming when he leaves public life. A Providence dispatch says he will turn his attention to raising good stock and chickens. This is good news. We have an idea that several chickens will come home to roost for Mr. Aldrich. This distinguished agriculturist will have to buy trust made farm machinery, that is being sold abroad cheaper than at home, while other beneficent policies of his making will doubtless rise up to plague him.—Asheville Gazette-News. (Rep.)

It might be added that a story is now going the rounds in Washington, with a plausible ring to it, that Mr. Roosevelt manifested his sympathy for the insurgents on the day Mr. Taft was inaugurated. The movement had just begun to move at that time, and it mainly took the form of an effort to dethrone Speaker Cannon. Mr. Roosevelt is said to have taken the subject up with his successor, but to have received little encouragement, Mr. Taft, taking the position that he did not wish to start anything of the kind at the beginning of his administration. However, these things may be, if Mr. Roosevelt lines up with the insurgents there will be a stir among the animals such as has not been witnessed, in the language of the Hon. Champ Clark, since the morning stars sang together.—Asheville Gazette-News. (Rep.)

AFFAIRS AT SOUTHPORT.

Inland Waterway Talk—Chamber of Commerce Reorganized—Veterans.

(Southport News.)

It is stated that the figures on the two routes for the inland waterway show results favorable to the Southport way, where the deepest cut is 30 feet, as against 70 feet for the Lake Waccamaw route. Certainly, this is worthy of note.

At the last regular business meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, officers for the ensuing year were elected, following reports from the officers covering the work of the past year. The officers are: President, E. B. Stevens; first vice president, W. H. Pyke; second vice president, R. C. Cool; secretary, Jens Berg; treasurer, Richard Dosher. Several new members were taken in, and the Chamber has taken on new life. The record of the past year's achievements is encouraging and greater usefulness is proposed for the future. The Chamber went on record as favoring the Good Roads bonds, and will work for the issue.

On Friday last the Brunswick veterans met in their annual Reunion at Bolivia. The day was fair and a large assemblage of people were there with the veterans, whose ranks are growing thinner as the years pass. In executive session, after remarks by the president, W. W. Drew was re-elected for the ensuing year, and G. F. Drew was elected secretary. I. W. Harrelson, G. M. McKeithan and O. T. Arnold were chosen a committee to memorialize the next Legislature, favoring an increase of pensions from the State. All opposition was withdrawn in favor of Southport, which was selected as the place for the next reunion, to be held on May 25th, of next year, the 50th anniversary of the organizing of the first company of volunteers from the county—Company G. of the 20th. After the business was transacted the veterans were addressed by C. Ed Taylor, Esq., who referred in a few remarks to the examplary lives as citizens the veterans of the county had set for the younger men. Senator Clark, of Bladen, and Mr. A. J. McKinnon, of Robeson, were present, and were pressed into service by the veterans, who responded in very appropriate speeches to the "men who wore the gray." A most sumptuous dinner was served to all present by the kind women of that section, who never tire at service for our old veterans. Following the dinner, Mr. J. B. Farrow, of Wilmington, himself a veteran, spoke to the assemblage, particularly to his old comrades.

GRAMMAR SCHOOLS

Interesting Exercises Yesterday at Union and Hemenway Institutions.

THE GRADUATING CLASSES

Large Crowds in Attendance at Both —Presentation of Gifts and Awards of Diplomas and Certificates to Several Grades.

The commencement exercises proper of both Hemenway and Union schools were held yesterday morning, the former at 9 o'clock and the latter at 11 o'clock, and the auditorium of both were filled with friends and patrons of the institutions. Owing to the fact that the pupils continued their regular work up to a few days ago, the exercises were not as elaborate as usual, at either school, but were of a decidedly interesting and pleasing nature. The result is that the classes from both schools go to the High School better prepared than any of the former classes from the grammar schools.

The committeemen of the two districts were in attendance upon the exercises as well as a large number of visitors who are interested in the cause of education; this in addition to the patrons of the schools. Hon. Thos. W. Bickett, Attorney General of North Carolina, who arrived early yesterday morning to deliver the address to the graduating class of the High School, was present at both schools and was very much interested in the exercises and the work of the pupils as shown by the exhibitions in the various rooms. The exhibition of the work was left in place through yesterday and those who arrived at the buildings early interested themselves in looking over the excellent work of the pupils, while others visited the different rooms just after the conclusion of the exercises.

At Hemenway School.

The exercises at Hemenway School began at 9 o'clock by which hour there had already assembled a large audience. When the pupils had marched in and taken their places on the stage, members of the graduating class were introduced by Mr. John J. Blair, the superintendent, following which prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure, pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. Robert Edwin McClure, a member of the graduating class and son of Dr. McClure, made a most interesting speech in which he welcomed the visitors. He is a very bright young man and is talented as a speaker and his carefully prepared remarks were delivered with ease and grace. The class gift, an expensive copy of the "Strawberry Girl" by Sir Joshua Reynolds, was presented to the school by George LeGrand, Robert Taylor and Donald Parsley, and was received in behalf of the school by Superintendent Blair in a few appropriate remarks, in which he told something of the picture. The original of the painting hangs in the Wallace Collection in London and has been always greatly admired for the charm and childish modesty in pose and manner of the quaint little figure. Among the artist's other famous and popular pictures are the "Angel Heads," "Simplicity" and "Innocence." When Sir Joshua Reynolds died, not only the Kingdom of Great Britain, but the entire world regarded his death as a personal loss. His funeral was attended with as much state ceremony as though he had been one of the royalty. Mr. Blair said that the school was indeed fortunate in possessing such a faithful copy of this exquisite and charming little painting of childhood.

The history prize of $5 in gold, given by Mr. Samuel Bear, a member of the school committee, was won by Miss Margaret George. The prize was for the best composition covering the past ten years of United States history. Mr. J. A. Taylor, chairman of the committee, made the speech of presentation, and in course of his remarks referred to the value of the training the students had undergone in preparing their compositions on the history of the United States during the past decade. He said that all the compositions were very creditable indeed and he complimented the students upon their thorough work. The judges were Joseph W. Little, Esq., and Messrs. T. E. Brown and J. A. McGeachy. The next best histories were written by Masters Donald Parsley and Robert Taylor. Every member of the class entered the contest and they were at work on the books for two months.

This was followed by the singing of the class song, after which the certificates of promotion to the High School were presented to the members of the graduating class by Superintendent Blair. The following received the certificates: Misses Hazel Emily Banck, Frances Beatrice Beardsley, Emily McMillan Boney, Aleine Bounds, Genevieve Lucy Dushan, Allie Morriss Fechtig, Annie Thomas Fennell, Daisy Helen Furpless, Margaret George, Ida Horowitz, Jean Coe LaFrage, Gertrude Irene McLean, Mary Louise Walker, Ruby Rodgers, Mattie Nolan King, Leona Marie Causely, Bryana Dorse Whitlock, Juanita Marie Shields, and William Henry King, George Spencer LeGrand, Owen Edward Lewis, Robert Edwin McClure, Marion MacRae, Donald MacRae Parsley, Nathaniel Silverman, Robert French Taylor, William Jennings Bryan Woolard and K. M. C. Williamson. The benediction was pronounced by Rev. C. F. Whitlock, pastor of Brooklyn Baptist Church, following which the class marched out, and the audience dispersed, some visiting the different exhibition rooms while others went over to Union School for the exercises there.

Union School.

The class at the Union School is probably the largest in the history of the school and the members go to the High School better prepared than any of the preceding classes for the reason, as above noted, that very little time was taken up toward the close of the term in getting ready for the commencement exercises. Practically every seat in the spacious auditorium was filled by 11 o'clock, the hour for the exercises to begin. The exercises began with "Summer Time," by Miss Mary Esther Cameron, followed by "Tell on His Native Hills," by Gray Hicks; "Asleep at the Switch," by Gordon Thompson; "Swinging," song by the class; class history, by Miss Thelma Brooks, each being well received by the large audience.

Roy Alexander Craig, of Room No. 1, Mrs. I. T. St. Amand, teacher, then presented the gift of his division of the class, an expensive painting, "Age of Innocence," by Sir Joshua Reynolds. McCallum Plowden, of Room No. 2, Miss Margaret Gibson, teacher, presented the gift from his class, Van Dykes' "Prince William of Orange." In presenting Van Dykes' picture of "Prince William of Orange," Master McCallum Plowden spoke as follows:

"In accordance with an established custom of the past, the graduating classes of 1910 have selected their annual gifts to be presented as souvenirs to the school. From Room 2 I have been asked to present this portrait of William II., Prince of Orange, painted by the Belgian artist Van Dyke. The original of this portrait is in the National Gallery at St. Petersburg.

"This picture is the product of a very learned and accomplished painter and one of the many products of the aristocracy to which Van Dyke strictly confined his work. This famous master of Flemish art entered the school at Antwerp at the age of fifteen and soon became one of the most renowned or Ruben's pupils as can easily be seen, for how naturally does he picture this ambitious ruler of the Netherlands, not as in after years the victim of wounded pride and defeated ambition, but as a stately youth of princely dignity and charming manners.

"In this respect there is a great resemblance between the Prince of Orange and our graduating class for it is widely known that we are very dignified and stately. And now I wish to say that it has given this class great pleasure to present to old Union some token of their esteem, and that if our gift is received with half the pleasure that it is given, it will be appreciated by one and all."

The pictures were received in behalf of the school by the Superintendent. The "Age of Innocence" has been a great favorite always with people of all classes and critics of all times are agreed as to its beauty and artistic worth. "Reynolds, of all artists," said Mr. Blair in accepting the gift, "painted children the best. He knew how to depict childhood in its truest and happiest spirit and "Age of Innocence" may be taken as the highest type of childhood portraiture. The picture is an expensive one and appears in almost the exact coloring and size of the original." In accepting the beautiful picture in colors reproduced from the original of Van Dykes' "Prince William of Orange," Mr. Blair said that Van Dyke is known as an ideal painter of royalty and the high bred aristocratic pose of the Prince in this picture presents a characteristic work of the artist in his happiest mood. "The original of his picture," he said, "hangs in the National Gallery in St. Petersburg and is regarded as an art treasure of almost priceless value." The pictures were then raised high upon the stage so they could be easily seen by every person in the audience.

Superintendent Blair then presented the members of the class the certificates of promotion which signify that the holders have completed the course prescribed in the grammar schools and are prepared to enter the High School. Mr. Blair stated that the exercises were very informal this year, purposely arranged, so that the pupils could devote all of their time to their studies. He said that the class would go to the High School better prepared than any preceding class, having done some work that was heretofore done by the Freshman class in the High School. Speaking for the members of the faculty and committeemen he thanked the parents for their cooperation during the year. He congratulated the members of the class upon their successful completion of the course in the grammar school and assured them they have the respect and admiration of the teachers both as a class and as individuals. As the name of each was called members of the class arose and received their certificates, and when all had been given out the class, at the request of Mr. Blair, arose and remained standing for a few minutes while the audience applauded.

The graduates are: Room No. 1—Charles West Bidgood, Caro Bell Blair, Ida Thelma Brooks, Athalia Rankin Bunting, Eliza Amelia Collins, Roy Alexander Craig, Alma Inez Davis, Erla Willie Davis, Rosa May Daniels, Charles Norman Ellsworth, Lillian Gertrude Hewett, Henry Jurgen Haar, Paul Fitzsimmons Hammond, Laura Hill Jacobs, Eva Kaminsky, Hattie Penelope King, Margaret Stedman Kingsbury, Charles Drayton Lodor, Katherine Taylor Manning, Katie Lee Merriman, Virginia Lee Milton, Katie Louise Newkirk, Henry Newton, Franklin Earl Penny, Jessie Glenora Harper, Sarah Katherine Risley, Katharine Russell, Elizabeth Maud Smith, Bryan Bernard Schonwald, Walker Taylor, Jr., William Whitfield Toomer, Oscar Leon Walton, Alice Haigh Walker, Vivian Cecile Williams, Catharine Davis Williams, Carl Walker Fulford, Jennie Buchannan Gilchrist, and Charles Stedman Grainger, Jr. Room No. 2—William Cooper Cumming, William M. Fenley, Elbert Gaskill, James Swindell Hall, John Moore Gray Hicks, Frances Hamwood Jones, Clayton King, George S. Stevens, Alfonso Newton, Henry Nurnberger, McCallum Plowden, Dudley Rogers, Calvin Wells, Charles Wagner, Jimmie Bordeaux, Lillie May Brock, Eva May Casteen, Mae Marie Coston, Mary Esther Cameron, Valeria Dukes, Myrtle D'Orange, Augusta Annie Margaret Fuchs, Wilhelmina Katherine Fuchs, Cecile Gore, Louise Griffith, Carrie Lee Hawkins, Ruth Madeline Harvey, Lillie Eva Hines, Gay King, Carrie Christine Meyland, Minnie Josephine Plowden, Zillah Rourk, Ruby Oree Swain, Pearl Arden Swain, Isabel Thomas, Valira Thomas, Blanche Edna Tripp, Gordon Elmira Thomson and Annie Wolff.

After the class "Farewell," pleasingly rendered by Miss Caro Belle Blair, Walker Taylor, Jr., president of the class of Room No. 1, presented to Mr. J. J. Blair, in behalf of the class, a handsome pair of cuff links, of Colonial design, with his initials engraved in old English. Mr. Blair, in a few remarks, expressed his deep appreciation of the remembrance. Members of class in the room were very generous in their remembrances to all with whom they were connected during their school days at Union.

Miss Cook, principal of the school, gave members of the class a parting word, admonishing them that sham does not pay in the long run, and urged them to be pure gold, through and through.

John D. Bellamy, Jr., Esq., announced that the committeemen of district No. 2 had decided that hereafter no flowers shall be given to the graduates at the commencement exercises, which announcement was greeted with a round of applause. Due to a misunderstanding as to when the rule would go into effect no flowers were presented yesterday to pupils from one of the rooms. After the singing of the class song, written by Miss Katherine Risley, the exercises came to a close.

Little Miss Thelma Brooks, of Room No. 17, Mrs. St. Amand teacher, led the entire school with an average of 99. She is only 12 years old. Miss Jennie Gilchrist was a close second.

READY FOR DRAINAGE.

Land Owners Made Minor Changes in Plans—Mr. Keith Returns.

At a recent meeting of the land owners of the Lyon Swamp Drainage district, minor changes were made in the plans, and it was decided that work will commence at the farm of Mr. L. H. Vollers, in Pender. The meeting was in the nature of a hearing before the Clerk of Court of Pender county at Burgaw, and was attended by a large number of the landowners who suggested changes. The friction among them, as to the plans, was not sufficient to prevent an agreement and the work is now practically settled upon. The viewers will classify the land within the next few weeks and the work will be actively taken up. Mr. B. F. Keith, a Pender county land owner, attended the meeting as a representative from that section. The reclamation project is a large undertaking and considerable time has been spent making arrangements.

LIVELY PERSONAL ENCOUNTER.

Ralph Kennedy and A. E. Peschau Engaged in Affray Yesterday.

Late yesterday afternoon Ralph Kennedy, a near-beer dealer at corner of Water and Princess streets, went to Justice Harriss' office and stated to Constable Savage that he desired to be placed under arrest for an assault on A. E. Peschau, the difficulty taking place on the street near Kennedy's place of business. In a few minutes Mr. Peschau entered the office and swore out two warrants against Kennedy, one for assault with deadly weapon and the other for selling whiskey. Kennedy gave $100 bond for his appearance at trial. Mr. Peschau was considerably bruised about the head. The difficulty started, it is said, over a dispute regarding an account. Kennedy claims that he used only his fist, while Peschau says that something else was used.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE.

Will be Held at Burgaw Methodist Church July 20th to 23rd.

The Wilmington District Conference of the North Carolina Conference of the M. E. Church, South, will be held at Burgaw July 20th to 23rd, announcement of the date having just been made by Rev. W. L. Cuniggim, the presiding elder. Sunday, July 24th, the new Methodist church at Burgaw will be dedicated and the exercises will be of a most interesting nature. Bishop John C. Kilgo, formerly president of Trinity College, who is well known in Wilmington, where he has many friends, has been asked to deliver the dedicatory sermon and although he has not yet accepted the invitation, it is expected that he will be present. A large number of Wilmingtonians will attend the conference as representatives of the local churches.

BOARD OF HEALTH.

Yesterday Time for Regular Meeting, But No Quorum Present.

The regular monthly meeting of the City Board of Health was scheduled to be held in the Mayor's office at the City Hall at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, but was postponed on account of the absence of a quorum. Those present were Dr. Joseph Akerman, city superintendent of health; City Engineer C. R. Humphreys and Mr. Joseph D. Smith. The reports of the health department for the month of May show that there were 54 deaths, 24 whites and 30 colored; 68 births, 28 whites and 40 colored. There are no cases of typhoid or scarlet fever in the city at the present, but there are two cases of smallpox at the pest house. There were 16 fumigations during the month.

Take in That Newbern Excursion Monday, June 6th, Will be the Excursion of the Year.

The first excursion of the year to Newbern will be run over the Atlantic Coast Line by Thomas H. Knight, whose excursions are always a delightful treat. Don't let this opportunity to go to historic Newbern go by, but get in line and be counted among the happy throng of those who know a good thing, and enjoy a day of genuine pleasure among people whose hospitality is proverbial.

Train will leave Union Station at 7:30 A. M. and will leave Newbern on the return at 10:00 P. M.

The fare is so small that no one need miss it—only $1.50 for the round trip.

It will be a hard matter to find a better trip, especially when the cost is considered. ma 27-9t.

HIGH SCHOOL FINALS

Graduating Exercises in Academy of Music Last Evening.

ADDRESS BY HON. T. W. BICKETT

Twenty-Two Young Ladies and Gentlemen Receive Their Diplomas—Announcements of Awards and Distinctions for Year.

Before possibly one of the largest and most cultured audiences ever assembled in the Academy of Music, the graduating exercises of the Class of 1910 at the Wilmington High School were held last evening under the most delightful auspices, twenty-two young ladies and gentlemen having received the coveted evidences of their successful completion of the four year's work at this old and time-honored institution, second to none of its kind in the State, the commencement having been in all respects one of the prettiest and most distinguished in recent years in this city.

The exercises began at 8:30 o'clock and as the large audience was assembling Kneisel's Academy Orchestra, which interspersed the programme during the evening with fine musical renditions, played several selections. The Academy stage from which the exercises took place was attractively set with palms while the footlights were draped with the colors of the class, old gold and black, and the ensign of the school hung from the walls of the drawing room scene. Among those on the platform, aside from members of of the class who were greeted with salvos of applause upon their advent, were the orator, Hon. Thomas W. Bickett, attorney general of North Carolina; Mr. J. O. Carr, chairman, and Messrs. Wm. H. Sprunt, D. J. Fergus, of the County Board of Education; County Treasurer H. McL. Green, Judge C. M. Cooke, that venerable friend of education, Mr. B. G. Worth, Chairman J. A. Taylar and Messrs. John D. Bellamy, Jr., James H. Chadbourn, Chas. W. Worth, of the School Committee; Rev. A. D. McClure, D. D., chaplain of the exercises; Supt. Blair, Prof. P. E. Seagle, principal of the High School, and others.

After a very fervent and appropriate prayer by Dr. McClure, the graduating class was presented in a neat address by Supt. Blair, who paid a high tribute to the young ladies and gentlemen and spoke of the increasing work and usefulness of the High School in the community. It gave the speaker pleasure to present individually and collectively the Class of 1910 of the Wilmington High School. (Applause)

Chairman J. O. Carr, of the County Board of Education, and a warm personal friend, introduced Mr. Bickett, referring to the great Charlotte convention which nominated Mr. Bickett for the high office to wh'ch he was called without his solicitation and commened him to the people as an eminent lawyer and a distinguished North Carolinian. Mr. Carr spoke of the decadence of the popular prejudice against high school education at the public expense and told why this was so, referring to the striking example of the beneficent influence of education before him. Mr. Bickett was a scholar, a lawyer of ability and a man of high character who has grown in the estimation of the people of North Carolina more than any man in this generation.

Mr. Bickett was greeted by the most enthusiastic applause. He paid high tribute to Wilmington and told a first-rate anecdote that put the audience in a good humor at the outset. He told of his association with Supt Blair at Winston and of his ready acceptance of his invitation to deliver the address at the commencement of the High School. "Nobody can say 'no' to Wilmington!" he said; "Every road in the State leads to Wilmington" and the speaker was glad he was here. But for the fact that the State has some kind of a lien on him, he would camp out here all Summer. He told another good story, at the art of which he is a past master, and modestly thanked Mr. Carr for that sweet music from the same voice which said "New Hanover casts nine solid for Bickett" at the Charlotte convention. He said that he had no excuse for leaving his office in Raleigh and coming to Wilmington to speak, certain curb-stone, white pine philosophers to the contrary notwithstanding. He would file as an answer to that complaint that he had left official duties to come here, the magnificent audience before him. He liked to be with folks; the best folks, he liked to be with boys and girls on the principle that birds of a feather will flock together and because he saw in the line of youth before him a dynamic force more powerful than all the Southern Power Companies, Buckhorns, and Blewett Falls combined.

Coming to the more serious phase of his subject, he said that he would talk on the subject of "Weights and Measures," which he did by applying the theme to standards of life and citizenship in words of great eloquence and beauty. It is regretted that the manuscript of the excellent address is not available for publication in its entirety, but it will suffice to say that the people of Wilmington have rarely, if ever, listened to a more beautiful or a more ennobling effort. He pictured in words more powerful than are transmissible to paper some of the fallacies of life and some of the shams, paying a splendid tribute to the South and its citizenship. The speaker's message to the graduating class was couched in the most beautiful language and was inspiring. He was greeted with the most enthusiastic applause at the conclusion of his great address.

The presentation of diplomas in the unavoidable absence of Mayor MacRae was by Supt. Blair, who again spoke of the good work done by the Class, and presented the evidences of their proficiency to the following: Misses Eva May Beery, Hazel Lucile Black, Maggie Washington Bowden, Lotie Frink, Josephine Sanders Harriss, Jessie Cunninggim Holmes, Adeline Rulfs Keith, Emma Hazel King, Emmie Belle LeGwin, Emma Gabriella Lossen, Fannie Starr Mitchell, Laura White Reid, Etta Serenah Salling, Ethel Mae Solomon, Emily Skinner Westbrook, Ursula Virginia Willis, May Sattes Willson; Messrs. William Campbell Lord, John William Niestlie, Israel Harding Noe, David Welford Pratt, John Douglas Taylor, Jr.

As the names were called, the graduates came forward, received their diplomas and resumed their seats. Mr. Blair made a pleasing advertence to the presence of Mr. Worth, which was liberally applauded, evidencing the high esteem in which he is held by the people of Wilmington generally. As the orchestra played a selection, the ushers came forward with innumerable bouquets of beautiful flowers for the sweet girl graduates while several of the male members of the class were not forgotten by mementoes from their friends.

The presentation of the University Scholarship, which was won by Mr. Israel Noe, was by Mr. J. A. Taylor, chairman of the Joint School Committee. In presenting the scholarship Mr. Taylor spoke briefly of the raising of the standard of all the schools and of the exceptionally fine opportunities offered for education in New Hanover. The per capita cost of education in New Hanover is only $15 per annum while in other parts of the State it ranges from $22 to $35 per annum. Fourteen teachers now in the Wilmington schools are graduates of the High School, nine are at Chapel Hill completing their education and recently of the only ten out of the entire student body at the University who received 92 1-2 average on their studies, one of the number was an old Wilmington boy of the High School, Harry M. Solomon. He took great pleasure in presenting with suitable words of admonition to Mr. Noe, the University Scholarship.

Supt. Blair made the presentation of the Amy Morris Bradley medal for the highest scholarship during the year, which he was pleased to announce was won the past year by Miss Fannie Starr Mitchell, who came forward and received this rare distinction in the midst of the greatest applause.

For the prizes aggregating $10 and offered by Mr. Louis T. Moore for the best articles submitted for the High School Magazine during the year Mr. Blair announced that Miss Alice Sawyer had won the first of $5; Mr. Israel Noe the second and Miss Hazel Black the third. The prize of $5 offered by the Wilmington Stamp Works for the best essay on why people should patronize home industries was won also by Mr. Israel Noe and was presented by Mr. Blair in appropriate language.

Just before the benediction Supt. Blair announced the Grand Honor Roll both for the year 1909 and 1910 as follows. Four pupils have been on the honor roll for the entire four years. Miss Ursula Willis was on the first honor roll always while Misses Lottie Frink, Ethel Solomon and Etta Salling were first each year except this. Miss Etta Salling led the grade for the Freshman and Sophomore years.

For the year 1909-10, Miss Fannie Starr Mitchell led the Senior Class with an average of 98.4, while the other first honors were Misses Ursula Willis 97.4, Mr. Israel Noe; second honors, Misses Lotie Frink, Etta Salling and Ethel Solomon. Others on the Grand First Honor Roll for the year were as follows:

Sophomore Class—Alice Sawyer, 99.2; Lula Johnson, 95.75; Jennie Johnson, 95.6.

Freshman Class—Jeanette Buck, 99.05; Lena May Herring, 98.7; Emily Hammond, 97.7; Mabel Vineberg, 95.9; Julia Faison, 95.5; Sue Kingsbury, 95.4; Miss Alice Sawyer leads the school for the year with a grade of 99.2; Miss Jeanette Buck second, with 99.05.

Grand Second Honor Roll.

Sophomore Class—Katherine Von-Glahn, 94.9; Edna Lanier, Mary Lorenzo, Annie Leah Mercer, Ollie Rembert, Sadie Shaw, Maude Frink, Earle King.

Freshman Class—Gaynelle Nixon, 93.6; Goldie Griffith, 93.1; Joseph Lewis, Lula Conway, Arthur Humphrey, Lillian Davis, Bessie Harris, Annie Canady, Hazel Howie, Kenneth Otten, Carl Powers, Nellie Howard, Mollie Holton, Lida Beery, Inez Turley.

A Woman's Great Idea

is how to make herself attractive. But, without health, it is hard for her to be lovely in face, form or temper. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation and Kidney poisons show in pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. But Electric Bitters always prove a godsend to women who want health, beauty and friends. They regulate Stomach, Liver and Kidneys, purify the blood; give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth, velvety skin, lovely complexion, good health. Try them. 50c. at Robert R. Bellamy's.

Mexican MUSTANG LINIMENT

An unfailing remedy for the ills of your Live-stock and especially valuable in cases of Caked Udder and Sore Teats in Cows.

Saves Loss in the Dairy.

LYON MANUFACTURING CO.,
BROOKLYN, N. Y.

GENTLEMEN:—It seems to me among your claims as to the efficacy of Mexican Mustang Liniment you hardly give prominence enough to its wonderful curative power on inflamed and caked udder in cows. I have used it for two years in my stable and since I began its use have not had a case which was not relieved by a few applications. A thorough bathing of the udder with hot water followed by gentle and persistent rubbing in of the "Mustang" will, I believe, cure any case, leaving the teats in good order—unless suppuration has already begun. If all others in the dairy business knew this it would save much worry and loss. Respectfully,

ANNUAL MEETING OF ALUMNI ASSOCIATION.

The annual meeting of the Alumni Association of the High School was held yesterday afternoon at 12:30 o'clock in the High School building. It was one of the most largely attended and enthusiastic meetings ever held and the members manifested deep interest in the several matters that came up for consideration. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Miss Deborah Shrier; vice president, Miss Jennie Jackson; secretary, Miss Jennie Corbett; treasurer, Mr. Paul Lupo. The final arrangements were made for the reception to be given in the armory of the Boys' Brigade this evening to the members of the 1910 Senior class. A committee was appointed to revise the constitution in one or two particulars. The association expressed its hearty approval of the plan of of the school committee to enlarge and remodel the High School building, and a committee was appointed to draft resolutions to this effect. The reception to the Senior class will be held in the armory of the Boys' Brigade, corner Second and Church streets, and will begin at 8:30 o'clock. It is expected that the reception will be attended by all members of the graduating class, 22 in number, principals of all the graded schools, teachers of the High School and the alumni of the school, who have been invited. The reception will be an informal affair and promises to be a most enjoyable occasion. Games will be played and an interesting informal musical programme will be rendered.

CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE.

Meets Here June 9th to Select Time and Place of Convention.

Geo. H. Bellamy, Esq., of Brunswick county, chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee of the Sixth North Carolina Congressional District, has instructed the secretary, Major T. A. Lyon, of Fayetteville, to notify members of the committee to meet in Wilmington Thursday, June 9th, at noon, in the law office of John D. Bellamy & Son to select the time and place of the Congressional convention. It is understood that an effort will be made to secure the convention for Wilmington or Wrightsville Beach, and it was stated some months ago that very likely a large number of the members of the committee would favor Wrightsville Beach. The convention this year will be the most interesting in some years, owing to the large number of candidates in the field for Congressional honors.

GREGG DAMAGE SUIT BEGUN

Half a Day Consumed in Selection of Jury to Try Issue—Several Witnesses for Plaintiff Yesterday Afternoon.

All of yesterday's session of the Superior Court was taken up with the beginning of the trial of the damage suit of Mrs. E. M. Gregg, administratrix, against the city of Wilmington, in which the plaintiff seeks to recover of the defendant $25,000 for the killing of her husband, the late Evander M. Gregg, by the collapse of a pile of brick in front of the Woolvin building on Princess street, in April, 1909. Mr. James F. Woolvin, owner of the building, is made a party defendant, though an appeal has been taken to the Supreme Court upon the lower court's refusal to sustain a demurrer to the complaint.

When court convened yesterday morning, before the selection of a jury was taken up, ex-Mayor A. G. Ricaud, counsel for Mr. Woolvin, renewed his motion to dismiss as to defendant Woolvin on the grounds stated in the formal demurrer, previously argued. The motion was overruled, the defendant excepted and appealed to the Supreme Court both from the refusal to dismiss and from the decision of the court overruling the demurrer. The selection of the jury was then entered upon and it was 1 o'clock in the afternoon before this work was completed, the panel being as follows: W. H. Shew, L. L. Whitney, L. D. Bradshaw, M. Marshburn, T. G. Landen, E. S. Bannerman, A. M. Underwood, F. Q. Moore, W. H. Schaefer, H. A. Burr, Jr., W. P. Oldham and B. B. Brown.

Upon the reconvening of court at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, the pleadings were read and the plaintiff began the introduction of testimony. This is being taken down by Miss Estella Shrier as official court stenographer. The attorneys are Messrs. Rountree & Carr and John D. Bellamy & Son for the plaintiff; City Attorneys Herbert McClammy and ex-Judge E. K. Bryan, for the defendant city of Wilmington, and exMayor Ricaud for the defendant Woolvin. The witnesses examined yesterday all testified as to the condition of the building material piled in the street with the exception of the plaintiff, Mrs. Gregg, who was on the stand when court took a recess for the afternoon after 5 o'clock. Other witnesses were Messrs. G. W. Bornemann, who introduced a photograph of the pile of material in the street, Mr. J. B. Hand, who was with Mr. Gregg when the material collapsed; Mr. W. A. Willson, Jr., Justice George Harriss and A. J. Marshall, Esq., all of whom testified to the condition of the brick, etc. There are half a dozen other witnesses for the plaintiff and it is not likely that the plaintiff will complete that side of the testimony before about noon today.

A SINGULAR ACCIDENT.

Child of Mrs. James Curtis Hurt on Street Car Yesterday.

The infant of Mrs. James Curtis, who resides at corner of Sixth and Ann streets, received a painful injury in a most singular manner on a street car yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock. The car made a sudden stop and the infant in the arms of its mother was struck in the forehead by the sharp point of an umbrella, severing a small artery in the child's head.

The accident alarmed Mrs. Curtis and several persons on the car offered assistance. Blood flowed profusely and as soon as the car reached corner of Princess and Second streets, the infant was carried into Kingsbury's Drug store, where it was given attention. Mrs. Curtis shortly afterwards carried the infant back home, where it was placed under the care of a physician.

TO CONSIDER WORLD'S FAIR.

Mayor Gaynor Named Committee of 100 Yesterday.

New York, June 3.—Mayor Gaynor named a committee of 100 today to consider the advisability of holding a world's fair here in 1913. In his letter to Henry Clews, who had requested the Mayor to name such a committee, the mayor said in part:

"I am naming Theodore P. Shonts, of the Interborough Rapid Transit Company, one of the committee. May I ask you to remind him that whether we shall have sufficient transit facilities here in 1913 to make this city a fit place for a world's fair depends on him and his board of directors. His company should fully realize that it is not a private, but a public corporation, highly favored and endowed by the community, and under corresponding duties to the community."

Among those named by the mayor are the following: Theodore P. Shonts, Henry Clews, Cornelius Bliss, Robert C. Ogden, Nathan Straus, George B. Cortelyou, Elbert H. Gary, Clarence H. Mackay, J. P. Morgan, Jr., Louis Nixon, James Speyer, Paul Morton, Otto H. Kahn, W. C. Brown, Peter Cooper Hewitt, Otto T. Bannard, Frank Munsey, Frank A. TAFT SPOKE AT DETROIT.

Address Made on Conservation of Natural Resources.

Detroit, Mich., June 3.—After having spent most of the day at Ada, O., where he delivered an address before a graduating class of the Ohio Northern University, President Taft came to Detroit tonight as the guest of honor at a banquet of the Board of Commerce.

President Taft spent the night here and leaves early tomorrow morning for Monroe, where during the forenoon he speaks at the unveiling of the Equestrian statue of General Custer. In the afternoon the President will attend the dedication of a tablet at Jackson to commemorate the 56th anniversary of the founding of the Republican party.

The speakers at tonight's banquet included Governor Fred M. Warner, Mayor Breitmeyer, Senators Burrows and William A. Smith, Representative Denby and President Abner E. Larned, of the Detroit Board of Commerce.

President Taft spoke upon the subject of the conservation of natural resources. "I am glad to announce to you that I have just learned that the railroad bill has passed the Senate."

The President was interrupted by an outburst of applause.

"With that important legislation out of the way I hope the Senate will find a way to take up at an early date the conservation measures."

The President said he hoped, first of all, for a law definitely ratifying the right of the executive to withdraw power sites and various classes of public land from public entry under the homestead law pending legislation for their disposition under various restrictions which he has already outlined from time to time.

THOMAS TO STAND TRIAL.

Alleged Baggage Thief Brought Back to Richmond.

Kingston, N. Y., June 3.—Detectives started for Richmond, Va., today with George W. Thomas, who was recently arrested at Marlborough, Ulster county, charged with being head of a gang of baggage thieves that has been operating on Southern railroads. A writ of habeas corpus secured by Thomas was dismissed today by County Judge Cantine.

Richmond detectives identified Thomas as "Old Scotch", who is under indictment at that city, and Lewis Rogers, alias Price, who was recently pardoned after serving part of a five and a half year sentence for railroad robberies, testified that Thomas assisted him in these crimes.

Thomas claims St. Louis, Mo., as his residence, and David E. Griswold, head of an employment agency in that city, swore he saw Thomas there almost daily during May, 1906, when the robberies charged against him were committed at Charlottesville, Va.

LITTLE GIRL FATALLY BURNED

While Playing With Lighted Matches Clothing of Three-Year-old Daughter of Mr. J. L. Sutton Caught Fire.

Catherine Sutton, the three-year-old daughter of Mr. J. L. Sutton, lineman for the Western Union Telegraph Company, was horribly burned while she and two little companions were pected early last evening that she would live through the night, although everything possible is being done to save her life.

playing with lighted matches on the back porch of her father's home, at Greenville Sound, about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and it was not expected that she would live through the night, although everything possible is being done to save her life.

Catherine and two little girl friends, the oldest of whom is only five years old, were playing on the back porch at Mr. Sutton's home with lighted matches, when her clothes caught fire and in a moment she was enveloped in flames. The oldest of the trio, as soon as she saw her little companion in flames, rapped on the back door, which in some manner had become fastened, and before anyone in the house was aroused, Catherine, in her efforts to put out the blaze, had fallen from the porch to the ground, where she was later picked up, every part of her body being horribly burned except the bottom of her feet and a small place on the back. The little one was taken in the house and Dr. Morris Caldwell hurriedly summoned. The physician pronounced her burns as serious and expressed grave doubts of her recovery. If she survives the night she will be taken to the James Walker Memorial Hospital this morning.

JEFF DAVIS HONORED.

Six States Paid Tribute to President of Southern Confederacy.

Petersburg, Va., June 3.—Six Southern States today, the 102nd anniversary of the birth of President Jefferson Davis, of the Southern Confederacy, honored the memory of their soldier dead, who fell before this city during the war by dedicating memorial windows in the old Blanford church here, in the cemetery of which lie the martyrs of a lost cause. Gov. Mann, of Virignia, took part in the ceremonies.

State Senator F. H. Weston, of South Carolina, presented the window given by that State.

Alabama's window was presented by Gen. C. Irvine Walker and unveiled by Mrs. Charles Brown.

Congressman James W. Collier, of Mississippi, presented the window of his State. It was unveiled by Mrs. Lou Clark.

The Tennessee window was presented by Congressman Benjamin Humphreys, of Mississippi, and unveiled by Miss Hume.

Miss Mary Horward unveiled the Arkansas window and Miss Fannie Constable, the Maryland window.

Each window is 9 1-2 feet high and 3 1-2 feet wide. They are beautiful specimens of art of the same general design. With the unveiling of the six windows today all of the Southern States now are represented in Blandford church except Georgia, Florida and Texas.

NO SOUTH AMERICAN WAR.

Both Peru and Ecuador Hove Agreed to Withdraw Troops.

Washington, June 3.—Both Peru and Ecuador have agreed to withdraw tomorrow the troops which for some time past they have been mobilizing on the frontier of the two countries preparatory to war over the question of the boundary between the two South American States.

This information reached the State Department today, the fact that Peru has consented to withdraw its troops coming from Senor Pardo, Peruvian minister here, with Ecuador's willingness to follow her neighbor's example was communicated to this government from the American minister at Quito. The withdrawal of troops means that the two countries accept the offer of mediation in the boundary questions by the United States, Brazil and Argentine.

According to a statement issued late today by the State Department, the cessation of warlike preparations by Peru and Ecuador was "not only the first and paramount condition of the offer of mediation but evidently was the most important step essential to removing the imminent danger of war."

State Department officials are elated at the success of the joint offer of mediation which was proposed by Secretary Knox. The fact that Peru would withdraw her troops from the border was known this morning but Ecuador's concent to do likewise did not reach the State Department until late in the day.

CALDWELL SOLDIERS.

Monument Unveiled Yesterday—Judge Walter Clark Speaker.

Lenoir, N. C., June 3.—A monument was unveiled here today to the Confederate soldiers of Caldwell county. Chief Justice Walter Clark delivered the address. Caldwell county furnished more soldiers to the Confederacy than it had voters.

The Proof Is In Wilmington Almost at Your Door.

The public statement of a Wilmington citizen is in itself strong proof for Wilmington people, but confirmation strengthens the evidence.

Here is a Wilmington citizen who testified years ago that Doan's Kidney Pills relieved sick kidneys and now states the cure was permanent. Can any sufferer from kidney ills ask better proof? You can investigate. The case is right at home.

R. A. Biddle, 606 Castle St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "About four years ago I used Doan's Kidney Pills for kidney trouble and they did me so much good that I gave a testimonial for publication, recommending them. I have had no occasion to take this remedy since then, as the cure has been permanent. I am willing that my testimonial be published again. I have recommended Doan's Kidney Pills a great many times and know of several people who have been greatly benefited by them."

TWO MORE INDICTMENTS.

Hayne and Brown Indicted by the Government.

New York, June 3.—A sealed indictment was handed down today by the special Federal grand jury which, at the instance of Attorney General Wickersham, has been investigating the bull cotton movement in this city and New Orleans. When the proceedings began Clark McKircher, in charge of the case for the government, admitted that the complaint, alleging a violation of the Sherman anti-trust law, was against Frank B. Hayne and Wm. P. Brown, of New Orleans, and others.

The agreement in restraint of trade which the government contends was entered into was said to provide for the purchase of 150,000 bales of cotton from March to July inclusive at set price. More than 100 witnesses have been called before the grand jury during the hearings.

Mr. Brown and Mr. Hayne have both said that they acted indifferently and that it was merely a coincidence of judgment that they happened to be on the same side of the market.

A SHARP ADVANCE IN COTTON

Prices Inspired by the Government Crop Report on the Staple—Renewal of Bull Support—Southern Markets.

New York, June 3.—The cotton market har a further sharp advance from the low level of yesterday with July contracts selling at 14.85, or $3.50 per bale above the figures touched immediately following the publication of the government's crop report. The close was firm at a net gain of 5 to 14 points, although there was a somewhat reactionary tendency in the last hour as a result of realizing for over the week end.

The market opened firm at an advance of 4 to 13 points on covering and bull support. Cables were steady and while the weather in the South was considered generally good, sellers of earlier in the week seemed to be very much disappointed by the action of the market since the publication of the condition figures. At any rate there was an urgent demand from shorts during the early trading and before the advance was checked July contracts sold at 14.85, and August at 14.40, or 31 to 37 points net higher, while the new crop went up to a net gain of about 15 to 16 points. The buying on this advance appeared to have exhausted the more urgent demand from shorts and during the afternoon the market reacted several points from the best under realizing, but firmed up in the last few minutes on a renewal of bull support. It is reported that near month bulls have marketed a large amount of their spot cotton during the past few days, and that because of this reduction in their holdings they are assuming a more aggressive attitude with reference to futures.

Southern spot markets officially reported early were 1-8c higher to 3-8c lower. The New Orleans market was closed today, but the South was a good buyer here on the early advance. Complaints of very high temperatures are coming in from Texas, but otherwise weather conditions are considered very favorable and the strength of the market seems due to the failure of the June condition figures to have promoted more aggressive selling, the strength of the statistical position and the renewal of old crop bull support.

Receipts at the ports today 8,009 bales against 9,014 last week and 14,304 last year; for the week 55,000 against 56,293 last week and 60,759 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 615 against 2,131 last year and at Houston 851 against 1,064 last year.

Spot closed quiet, 40 points advance, middling uplands 14.90, middling gulf 15.15; sales 16,094 bales. Futures opened firm and closed firm.

COTTON REVIEW OF PAST WEEK

Government Report Far From Being as Bullish as Expected—General Market Conditions—South Selling New Crop.

New York, June 3.—Cotton bulls have met with a reverse owing to heavy liquidation and bear raids with a more favorable outlook for the crop as a menacing feature in the background. Also the recent heavy decline in quotations for stocks and grain have given some people the idea that the star of bull speculation is on the wane. Moreover, the government report on the second instant was far from being as bullish as many had expected.

At home and abroad the impression was that the condition would be put at about 79 or 80 per cent. But the government stated it at 82 per cent. against 81.1 a year ago and 80.9 as the June average for ten years past. Bulls derive some comfort from the fact that the government's report did not concur with some estimates of the increased acreage of as high as 4 1-2 per cent., but instead put it at 2.8 per cent. But even so, the belief is widespread that the cotton area in this country this year will be the largest ever known. West of the Mississippi large tracts of cattle ranges of virgin soil have been broken up for cotton planting. The high prices are believed to have stimulated cultivation to an unwonted degree. One indication of this is the enormous sale of fertilizers this year. Prices are some $20 a bale higher than those of a year ago. Besides, the bulls have had to contend against the dullness of speculation. Many houses have been advising their customers not to touch the old crop months on the ground that they were too much under the influence of manipulation—that to sell them was to invite a squeeze and to buy them might be simply "holding the bag" for the big bulls to fill. And the mills stick to their policy of curtailment.

Spot cotton in most parts of the South has been quiet. Dry goods reports as a rule are far from encouraging. The South has been selling new crop months against the actual cotton. Large spot interests have been heavy sellers. A clique of bears attack the market from time to time with vigor. These include men with Southern connection. Reports from China have not been favorable. The high cost of living in this country is something to be reckoned. Yet bulls have stood valiently by their interests although they might have reduced their holdings to some extent. Mr. Patten has denied the reports that he had sold out his line. Messrs. Brown, Hayne and Scales are still buying and supporting the market from time to time.

The local certified stock has latterly died. Liberal shipments have been made to Europe from the local stock and Italy, Portugal and Germany have been buying to some extent at New Orleans. The weather in Texas has suddenly become very hot.

Latterly the short interest here has greatly increased. Aside from the big bulls there has been drastic liquidation of long interests. The technical position is supposed to have been thus improved. The statistics to many look strong and it is intimated that the big bulls are not really whipped yet. On Friday prices advanced on reports of an active spot demand here for export, bull support and covering by nervous shorts.

ANOTHER BREAK IN STOCKS

With Violence Almost Unexampled Except in Panicky Times—Prices Rebounded Repeatedly From the Declines.

New York, June 3.—Prices of stocks again today broke with a violence almost unexampled outside of times of absolute panic. This was after a show of resistence to the forces of depression during the early hours, when the heaviest selling that appeared seemed to be easily absorbed and prices re-bounded repeatedly from the declines.

The kind of explanations offered for the recovery showed plainly how attention remained centered on the dominant topic of the government's policy towards railroad rate increases. There were circulated, for instance, an expression of confidence from an anonymous legal authority that the injunction against the Western Trunk Line rate advances would be promptly dissolved. Another rumor alleged that President Taft contemplated a statement in one of his Western speeches calculated to allay the apprehension which has found expression in the stock market. There was no attempt to offer authority for these assertions.

On the other hand there was no lack of authority for expressions of the gloomiest views by prominent railroad officials of the disastrous consequences they saw threatening from the holding up of the intended rate advances by the railroads. President Brown of the New York Central was quoted in a published statement as saying that the credit of the railroads "has been almost totally destroyed by this action, (the rate injunction), and it will be almost impossible, in my opinion, for any railroad to secure a loan here or abroad."

The use made of the Brown interview was very effective in spreading the spirit of anxiety, in precipitating liquidation and in breaking prices to the lowest level of the year.

Use was also made of the fragmentary extracts from President Taft's speech at Ada, Ohio, especially the passage "it is reasonable to suppose that at some time within the next decade there will be some reaction or some financial stringency or perhaps a financial panic." Also the passage "I think the issue of most importance will be the question of the preservation of private property or its destruction and the substitution of a certain kind of co-operative joint enjoyment of everything which is the ideal of socialism."

The mood of the speculation became fairly hysterical at times and last prices were not far from the lowest. Union Pacific was down 5 3-4 on the day and Reading. New York Central, the other Pacifics, United States Steel, Amalgamated Copper and the railroad equipment stocks in the neighborhood of four points. Bonds were easier. Total sales par value $2,637,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales today 1,502,800 shares.

QUIET WEEK FOR TRADE.

Atlantic Coast Reports Unsatisfactory—Bradstreet's Review.

New York, June 3.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say: Trade advices are irregular, varying somewhat with the sections or lines reporting, but with quietness the prevailing feature. Probably the best reports as to trade come from the Northwest and the Pacific coast while the Atlantic coast reports of current retail trade being unsatisfactory. Action by the government against higher railroad freight rates resulted in rumors of suspensions of improvement work by railroads, some of which were, however, denied. These reports injected an additional element of uncertainty into the industrial situation. There is more activity in iron, but largely at the expense of prices. Cotton goods still feel the effects of contrast of high present prices with probably lower future quotations for raw material. The leather and shoe trades are quiet. Building is active, but May totals will probably fall behind April.

Business failures for the week ending with June 2nd, in the United States, were 160 against 200 last week, and 191 in the like week of 1909.

HESTER ON COTTON.

Shows World's Visible Supply to be 2,993,453 Bales.

New Orleans, June 3.—Secretary Hester's statement of the world's visible supply of cotton issued today shows the total visible to be 2,993,453 against 3,131,408 last week and 3,792,400 last year. Of this the total of American cotton is 1,833,453 against 1,965,408 last week, and 2,902,400 last year; and of all other kinds including Egypt, Brazil, India, etc., 1,154,000 against 1,166,000 last week and 890,000 last year.

Of the world's visible supply of cotton there is now afloat and held in Great Britain and continental Europe 1,486,000 against 2,450,000 last year; in Egypt 93,000 against 156,000 last year; in India 733,000 against 434,000 last year, and in the United States 681,000 against 752,000 last year.

THE GRAIN MARKET.

Chicago, June 3.—That a scalded dog dreads cold water was demostrated well today in the wheat pit. Cautionsness amounting to downright timidity was evident from start to finish on side of the market. HUBBARD BROS. & Co.

Review of the Market as Reflected in Yesterday's Business.

(Special Star Telegram.)

New York, June 3.—The strength of our market yesterday afternoon alarmed many of those who have been looking for a sharp decline in July and August on the bureau report and orders to sell but these deliveries were present from the opening. Judging from the action of the market it would appear as if a large short interest had been created in these positions, as they advanced quickly, while the distant deliveries improved only slowly. Such rapid fluctuations are natural where so large a proportion of the visible supply is held in few hands when outside conditions are more or less unfavorable. Our stock is being rapidly shipped to the continent and Great Britain. Spinners takings of 168,000 bales are large from so small a stock.

HUBBARD BROS. & CO.

Clothing Sale

I have decided to sell my stock of clothing at great reduced prices. We handle several noted brands that are sold to men and boys, and among them we sell Adler's Rochester Clothing for men, we will sell the $27.50 value in new up-to-date goods for men for $17.50. The $20.00 value for $14.00 and other styles in proportion. The Adler Rochester Bros. suits are the height of perfection in style, fit and material. They wear and look well twice as long as an ordinary suit. These suit never swag or wrinkle in the front or break in any way. I am selling this grade of clothing at this price more to introduce them than anything else.

We have on hand about 100 men's all wool cashimer suits, the prices of these suits have been greatly reduced. We are selling our $9.00 suits for $4.98, Men's Fancy Worsted $10.00 suits for $6.38 and other suits in proportion to these.

A Special Sale on Men's Pants. We are selling our $1.50 pants for 86 cents special. Our $2.00 pants for $1.08. In Men's pants we sell quite a large variety, and we have as nice assortment as you can find anywhere and prices below competition.

We are selling boys' suits as low as 58 cents. A real nice Wash suit for 68 cents each. A nice high grade worsted Suit for $2.56.

UNDERWEAR

Men's and Boys' nansook underwear for 23 cents each. A fine line of men's silk finish balbriggan underwear made of lisle thread $1.00 quality at 50 cents each, just half price. Ladies' undervests full sizes 5 cents each. In our Big Clothing Store we have made up our mind to cut the prices and unload the goods in season, as it is now in the Spring of the year when the people are buying clothing and I want to move mine.

Remember This

We are offering you seasonable clothing at out of the season prices. Come and see the goods and judge for yourselves whether they are rich values and great bargains. To buy the clothing at half price is a big saving to you, to sell at that price means a big loss to me. I make this offer to help you out as well as myself. Come to Gaylord's Clothing Sale as we have everything in the Clothing Department.

The COLUMBIA Refrigerator

If there is one thing more than another that a person should choose with care it is their refrigerator.

Your health is, to a certain extent, dependent upon it; for in it, for keeping, is placed the food you eat—your refrigerator must preserve.

The Columbia is the best by actual test—in it things keep perferctly—no taint—all parts easily removed for cleaning—we have them with both galvanized iron and white enamel linings. Prices $8.50 up. Water coolers all sizes.

ness of individual or joint rates or classification, and if such rates are found to be unreasonable, discriminatory, preferential or prejudicial, the commission is authorized to determine and prescribe a proper rate. Rates reduced to meet water competition must not be restored unless after a hearing by the commission to determine whether conditions have changed otherwise than by the elimination of the water competition.

Unless set aside by a competent court, orders of the commission are to continue in force for two years.

The commission also is given authority to investigate the propriety of any new rate, regulation or classification, individual or joint, of any common carrier, and pending such hearing a suspension for ten months of the rate, classification or regulation is provided for. The carrier is required to refund all charges found to be excessive.

Authority is also given the commission to establish through routes and joint classification and to prescribe maximum rates over the same, whenever the carriers themselves neglect to do so. This regular also covers water lines which are connecting carriers.

Shippers are given the right to designate a through route or part of a route over which their property shall be carried. A penalty of $5,000 is imposed upon carriers for disclosing any information concerning shipments. A like penalty is provided for violation of orders under section 15 of the existing interstate commerce law, and in this case each day that the violation continues is to be construed as a separate offense.

At intervals of six months the commission is required to make an analysis of tariffs and classifications and to investigate the advisability of a uniform classification.

Telegraph and telephone lines are placed under the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission. The Commission is authorized to determine the reasonableness of rates and a penalty is imposed of from $100 to $2,000 against granting franks or passes for the transmission of messages. Special night and press reports rates are authorized.

The only provisions in the bill applicable to other than railroad corporations is one regulating injunctions by the Federal courts which suspend the operation of State laws. It is provided that such action shall be taken only when presented to a justice of the Supreme Court or a Circuit judge and heard by three judges, one of whom shall be a Supreme Court justice or a Circuit Court judge.

The new law is to take effect in 60 days after its approval by the President.

Taft Clapped His Hands.

Detroit, Mich., June 3.—President Taft was attending a banquet of the Detroit Board of Commerce here tonight when he heard that the Senate had finally passed the railroad bill and he made no concealment of his pleasure. The bulletin was handed to him at the speaker's table by a representative of the Associated Press. The President clapped his hands. "Bully, bully", he exclaimed.

Then turning to Senators Burrows and William A. Smith, and Representative Denby, who were seated near him the President told them the news. Mutual congratulations followed.

CAROLINIANS HONOR DAVIS.

Exercises at Asheville and Hendersonville Yesterday.

Asheville, N. C., June 3.—Memorial Day and the anniversary of Jefferson Davis were fittingly observed here and at Hendersonville today with special exercises under the auspices of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. The features of the Asheville exercises were the memorial address of Dr. E. S. Joyner, of South Carolina, and the presentation of crosses of honor to two veterans, W. C. Templeton and P. E. Patton.

At Hendersonville the memorial address was delivered by Judge M. H. Justice, of the Superior Court, who moved many of his audience to tears by exhibiting the bullet pierced coat of gray worn by Lieut. Lucius Gash, of the 14th North Carolina Infantry, when he was killed on the Spotsylvania battlefield.

U. C. T. SESSIONS NOW UNDER WAY

"Wilmington Council in the rear of Fort Caswell Band.

"All Councils will form in columns of 2s, about 5 yards apart, and as soon as the parade is started will open up the distance in their line of about 5 yards.

"It is important that all councils assist the marshals as much as possible by forming promptly at 9:30, and that those who have no council formation of their own, take position with some other council in the parade."

Arriving at the foot of Market street about 11 o'clock the traveling men, members of their families and friends will board the steamer Wilmington for a delightful trip down the historic Cape Fear river, which will embrace a stop and inspection of Fort Caswell. Luncheon will be served on board the steamer on the return trip. Returning to the city late in the afternoon the party will board special suburban cars and go to the Seashore Hotel, Wrightsville Beach, where at 7:45 o'clock they will have supper. Tonight the visitors will be the guests of the Tidewater Power Company at an elaborate and attractive souvenir dance at Lumina, North Carolina's pleasure palace, which has been the scene of many notable events of the kind. This will mark the formal opening of Lumina for the season of 1910 and in addition to the visitors it is expected that there will be in attendance thousands of townspeople. Music will be furnished by the Lumina Orchestra, unquestionably one of the finest in the South, Charlotte Drum Corps and Metz's Charleston, S. C., Band. This will, in all probability, be the greatest event in the history of Lumina. It is certain that it will be the largest number of trained musicians who have met there to participate in an event of the kind and there will be music a-plenty for everybody and the variety will please. Many of the visitors will return to the city late at night, but the majority will remain on the beach over Sunday. Some of the visitors are expected to remain at the beach a greater portion of next week.

Many Visitors Here.

It was estimated last night that there are between 500 and 600 visitors here for the Grand Council meeting. However, they are scattered around so that it is hard to tell with any degree of certainty just how many are here. Up to yesterday afternoon it was estimated that there were between 300 and 400 here and some 200 were expected on the night trains. Still others are expected to arrive in the city this morning. The last day is always the biggest day and the largest attended, for the sessions of the Grand Council interest only a comparatively few, as only a certain number of delegates are allowed from each Council.

The famous Charlotte Drum Corps and the equally well known Metz's Band of Charleston, S. C., arrived in the city on the late trains Thursday night and went direct to Wirghtsville Beach, discoursing pleasing music as they journeyed down on the suburban cars. Yesterday morning at 11 o'clock the Charlotte Drum Corps gave a fancy drill at corner of Front and Market streets, attracting several hundred people, who pronounced the work of the young men composing the organization as well-nigh perfect. At League Park in the afternoon the organization gave another fancy drill, which was equally as well executed and pleased as greatly as the one in the morning. The drill on the ball room floor at Lumina last night proved of great interest to the hundreds gathered at the resort. Music for dancing was furnished by Metz's Band of Charleston, S. C.

Notes by a Member.

Mr. H. C. Marley, who acknowledges Greensboro as home and Council 296 as "hisn" is in town with the rest of the Greensboro bunch, looking as if the cares of a traveling salesman's life sat lightly on his shoulders. Nothing seems to ruffle Marley's temper or his garments.

Mr. S. C. Melone is another member of Greensboro Council, No. 296, who wanted his wife to participate in the festivities provided by the members of Cape Fear Council, so he brought Mrs. Melone along. No good U. C. T. ever leaves his wife at home, except when circumstances are such a course is inexpedient.

Raleigh Council, No. 474, the latest addition to the Carolina association of U. C. T. councils, sends two of its members to represent it in the Grand Council in E. A. Hughes and Horace Upshur, who were heard from in the deliberations.

C. E. Allen, of Anderson, S. C., Council, hale, hearty and as happy as a boy let loose from school, is getting his first introduction to Wilmington and the many sights of a seaport city. What Ban won't have to tell the boys back in the Piedmont isn't a circumstance to what he is stirring up to unload when he gets home.

C. C. Taylor, the silver-tongued orator of the Grand Jurisdiction of the Carolinas, blew in Tuesday night from Greensboro, where he is a member of the Council, No. 296. With his stock of oratory in proper shape and his pipes in working order.

The Patterson family of Greensboro are always on the job in U. C. T. affairs either in local or Grand Council affairs. The present representation numbers three, J. W., O. W., and H. Mr. Patterson, the latter accompanied by his wife. The question this year is not "Who struck Billy Patterson," but what a striking trio the Pattersons are.

MYSTIC SHRINERS MEET.

Convened at Asheville Yesterday—Good Attendance.

Asheville, N. C., Jpne 3.—The Red Fezed hosts of the Mystic Shrine Oasis Temple of North Carolina, invaded the city today for the annual ceremonial session between 300 and 400 Nobles attending. The opening session was held this afternoon, an intermission being taken at 6:30 P. M. The concluding session was held at 8:30 o'clock, when a large batch of "Fresh meat" went across the sands.

ASSEMBLY CALLED IN EXTRA SESSION

to the pressing emergency and importance of the matter to the State, the Governor could not wish prudence delay issuing his call for an extra session."

"The Legislature can do only one thing, it seems, and that is to authorize the Treasurer to borrow sufficient money to meet the obligations due on July 1st, as the suggestion to increase the rate of interest is impracticable, in view of the fact that there is not sufficient time to engrave and dispose of the new bonds, and it would not be wise, as it is generally thought the stringency which has depressed the price of securities is only temporary, and it would in that case be unwise to saddle on the people a long issue at a greater interest rate, when by borrowing for short time, say 12 months, the State can probably dispose of her 4 per cent. bonds before the loan would expire.

"Should the Legislature authorize a loan it should also authorize the State Treasurer to dispose of the bonds privately until the next Legislature meets, as many think a private sale would result in a practical exchange of new bonds for those maturing July 1st. In fact, such an exchange ought now to be authorized in the discretion of the Treasurer. However, all these matters are for the wisdom of the General Assembly. I will appreciate suggestions from all parties.

"While the Treasurer has no authority to exchange for the old bonds, yet the holders of these bonds can make their bids and use their old bonds in payment on July 1st, but all old bonds to be used in this way should be sent to the Treasurer or to some local bank before their maturity.

(Signed.) "B. R. LACY,
"Treasurer."

A conference of all the State bankers is called by Governor Kitchin for June 8th to consider the bond situation, preparatory for the final opening of the bids, June 10th.

New York, June 3.—The American Jewish committee today received the following cable message from Berlin: "Expulsion continues throughout Russia. At the lowest estimate 30,000 victims are involved, 7,000 of whom are from Kieff. Hilsverein der Deutchan Juden."
